FORTRESS MONROE SCENE OF GLOOM

Impressive Funeral Over Seven Soldier Victims Held Yesterday.

AFTERMATH OF EXPLOSION

Officers and 1,500 Soldiers Attended Services on Fort Camps—Bodies Sent to Homes—Touching Incident at Funeral.

Newport News, Va., July 22.—Impressive military funeral services were conducted over the bodies of seven of the victims of the catastrophe at Battery DeRussy under the shade of the trees on Fort Monroe campus this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Capt. J. H. Scott, post chaplain, conducted the services, which were attended by 1,500 artillery men and a large number of people from all over the peninsula.

Col. Clarence P. Townsley, the commandant, rode at the head of his command directly behind the caissons and hearses in the funeral procession. Brigadier General Arthur Murray, chief of the artillery, and Mrs. Murray, were present.

After the service five of the bodies were taken to the Chesapeake & Ohio dpot, and two to the steamship wharf at Old Point. Six artillerymen acted as pall-bearers for each of the dead soldiers, and in the procession they marched beside the three caissons and three hearses. Two bodies were borne upon the first caisson.

The bodies were sent to the following points for interment: Private Clyde W. King, Dayton, O.; Private John W. Chadwick, New Tazewell, Tenn.; Private J. H. Turner, Ripley, Tenn.; Private Roy Duffey, Kenova, W. Va.; Private Andy J. Sullivan, Williamsburg, Ky.; Private I. N. Adey, Albright, W. Va., and Private Judson Hogan, Kenton, O.

A touching incident of the funeral was the singing of "Nearer My God to Thee," as a duet by Mrs. F. P. Reynolds, wife of Major Reynolds, and Sergeant John Caugher. The post band led the funeral procession, and a choir of 50 voices sang selections during the services. During the service the bodies rested upon an improvised altar, covered with American flags and surrounded by beautiful flowers.

The bodies of Sergeant Harry G. Hess and Corporal Charles C. Atkins, were removed from the fort to their homes in Phoebus today and will be interred tomorrow. Services will be conducted at the fort to morrow over the bodies of Corporal Albert Bradford and Private Alfred W. Smith. These bodies will be interred in the National Cemetery.

Gloom hangs over Fort Monroe and vicinity. Everybody is talking about the tragedy and details of the accident which were not known outside of the post yesterday are being discussed today. Nothing new is known about the actual cause of the accident and the post is awaiting with intense interest the report of the board of investigation. The board is supposed to have forwarded its findings to the War Department today.

Explains Cause of Accident.

Washington, July 22.—To the failure of a safety mechanism to operate when a sudden and powerful pull was given by an artillery man in attaching the lanyard is now laid the responsibility for the accident which cost the lives of 11 men at Fort Monroe, Va., during the battle practice yesterday. Such is the conclusion of General Crozier, chief of ordnance, U. S. A., who attended the practice and who has been in touch with the inquiry made by the investigating board.

Never before in the history of the army had the device failed to work. The possibility of its occurrence was demonstrated, however, by General Crozier himself shortly after the accident by a test made of all the guns which participated in the practice. In another gun the ill-fated DeRussy battery the device was found defective when General Crozier applied unusual force, such as was never deemed necessary in tests and examinations.

Just before the accident, the gun was pronounced by officers to be in proper condition, and in April a coast artillery officer, on inspection duty, reported that its premature explosion was beyond the range of possibility. Steps will be taken at once to improve the distance.

"The firing mechanism is somewhat delicate," said General Crozier in discussing the accident, "because of the lack of sufficient space for the utilization of larger and more robust parts but it was supposed to be sufficient to withstand all reasonable usage. The operations of loading and firing are conducted with extreme rapidity, in the praisewrothy effort to make a good time record, and it is a necessary consequence that the motions are made with great force and violence.

"In this case it appears that the gun started to rise to the firing position, before the breech block was pushed home preparatory to rotating and locking it, and before the lanyard was hooked, so that the men whose duty it was to hook on the lanyard had to do it while the gun was in motion.

"Testimony is to the effect that he had some difficulty in hooking, making several passes in his attempt to do so,

ANOTHER SHERMAN LAW SUIT BEGUN

Government Will Prosecute Alleged Enameled Iron Ware Trust.

SIXTEEN CONCERNS ARE NAMED

Department of Justice Proceeds Against Officers—Charged With Being a Combination in Restraint of Trade.

Washington, July 22.—Sixteen concerns manufacturing sanitary enameled ironware and their officers located in nine States, were proceeded against today by the Department of Justice in a bill in equity filed against them at Baltimore, Md., under the Sherman anti-trust law.

The concerns were charged with being a combination in restraint of trade. It is said to control 85 per cent. of the output of wash bowls, bath tubs, lavatories, drinking fountains and other sanitary enameled ware.

The following are the defendants in the proceedings: Standard Sanitary Manufacturing Company, A. Weiskitte; the Barnes Manufacturing Company, the Cahill Iron Works, the Colwell Lead Company; Day-Ward Company, Humphreys Manufacturing Company, Kerner Manufacturing Company, J. L. Mott Iron Works, McAvey & Walker, McCrum-Howell Company, National Sanitary Manufacturing Company, Union Sanitary Manufacturing Company, U. S. Sanitary Manufacturing Company, L. W. Wolff Manufacturing Company, Wheeling Enameled Iron Company, Theodore Ahrens, Francis J. Torrance, E. L. Dawes, W. A. Myler, Anton Weiskittel, John D. Heise, C. H. Voegele, T. R. Banes, F. H. Caldwell, J. J. Mahoney, Jesse T. Duryee, Bert O. Tilden, W. C. Winfield, A. G. Ward, S. N. Ford, Reid Carpenter, J. S. Frauenheim, Jordan L. Mott, Max Goebel, Thomas Walker, Alexander C. Walker, Lloyd G. McCrum, Howard G. Gates, Frank G. Borden, D. W. Davis, L. C. Huesman, E. V. Bringham, Charles Arrott, A. H. Kline, Jr., Ludwig Wolff, Herman Hoelscher, J. E. Wright, George W. Franzheim and Edwin L. Wayman.

Baltimore, July 22.—The bill against the so-called "Bath Tub Trust" was filed in the United States Circuit Court here today, Edward P. Grosvenor, special assistant to Attorney General Wickersham, who drew the petition, and Joseph Darling, special agent of the Department, who made the investigation.

On June 10th, complaint was made to the Department of Justice that certain manufacturers of sanitary enameled iron-ware had advanced prices as a result of a combination and an investigation was at once begun. It was discovered, according to the government's bill, that the defendant had entered into a combination for the purpose of controlling the prices and terms of sale of their product throughout the United States. It is alleged that they compelled all jobbers to sign contracts as a condition sustaining their goods, and refusing to sell to those not signing such contracts.

It is stated that this suit differs from other suits instituted by the government under the Sherman law in that the defendants have attempted to conceal their purposes under the guise of an ostensible licensing arrangement under a patent.

A patent, it is alleged, was assigned to a person selected by the companies and then all acquired licenses to manufacture and sell under the patent, and by this means fixed prices. It is alleged that the defendants have attempted to use the patent laws as a screen for an illegal combination in restraint of trade. It is alleged in the bill that the defendants have divided the United Staes into geographical zones and by their system of contracts restrict each jobber in making sales, so as to prevent competition. It is further charged that the defendants are co-operating in fighting the manufacturers of sanitary enameled ironware and dealers therein in interstate commerce who have not become parties to the combination and that all the "defendants have united and now engaed in a common effort to force such manufacturers and dealers into the combination or else drive them out of business."

Penalties, it is alleged, are imposed on such members of the combinations as depart from the rules respecting prices and terms of sale fixed by the combination. These penalties are paid into a common fund of the defendants. The case in the ordinary course, is expected to come up for hearing in the Fall.

A Defendant Explains.

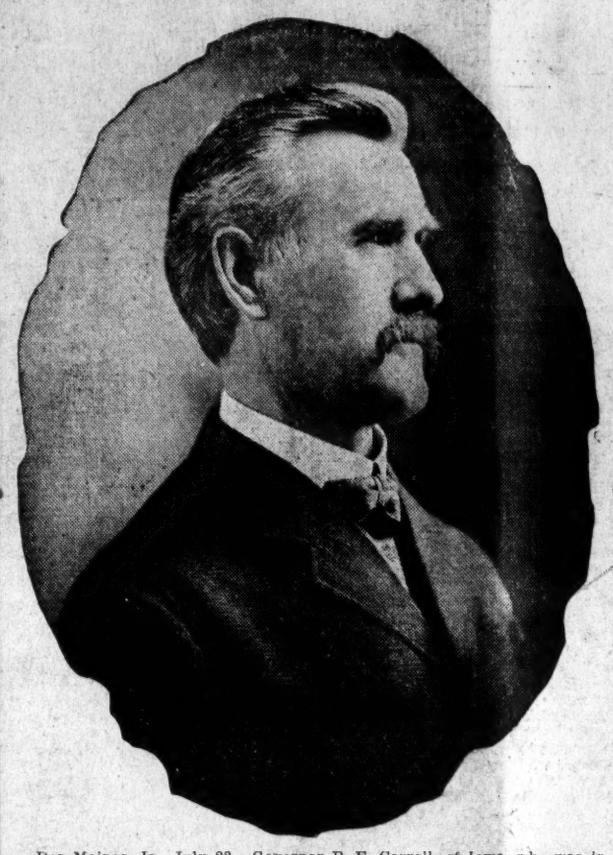
Louisville, Ky., July 22.—Theodore Ahrens, president of the Standard Sanitary Manufacturing Company, who, with his company, is named as defendant in today's proceedings, said:

"This suit grows out of certain patents we have taken up, resulting in a re-arrangement of prices. It is true, as stated, that we control 85 per cent. of the output of sanitary enameled ironware, but it is not true that we have advanced prices, nor have we compelled jobbers to sign iron-bound contracts as a condition to obtaining our goods. We have not refused to sell anyone not signing such contract.

"The statement that we are backed by $100,000,000 capital is absurd. All the firms in the organization do not do a business of $15,000,000 a year.

"Before we took up these patents, we laid the matter before the Department of Justice and were assured that our plans were perfectly legal."

Governor Carroll of Iowa Involved in Libel Suit



Des Moines, Ia., July 22.—Governor B. F. Carroll, of Iowa, who was indicted for criminal libel by the Polk county grand jury, is going to fight the case. The indictment is the outgrowth of an investigation by the grand jury of affairs at the Iowa Industrial School For Girls at Mitchellville. It is alleged in the bill that the governor made libelous statements concerning John Cownie, former chairman of the State board of control, in an article published in the Des Moines Capital of May 24, in which the governor set forth at length his reasons for demanding the resignation of Mr. Cownie. The governor is to remain at liberty without bond.

TAFT MADE PLEASING SPEECH

Spoke to People at Bar Harbor, Me. Yesterday—President Goes to Bangor by Special Train. Events of His Trip.

Bar Harbor, Me., July 22.—President Taft brought his stay in Bar Harbor to a close this afternoon. He landed here on Wednesday from the yacht Mayflower. He left today as a member of a merry coaching party behind four magnificent horses, headed for Seal Harbor, 11 miles away. The Mayflower weighed anchor at noon and steamed around to Seal Harbor to meet the President. The yacht afterward went to Northeast harbor and anchored there for the night with the Presidential party on board.

Tomorrow morning she will steam across Frenchman's Bay to the Mount Desert Ferry, where Mr. Taft will take a special train to Bangor. After visiting that city for two hours and making a speech he will proceed by special train to Ellsworth, the home of Senator Eugene Hale, to be the latter's guest until Sunday afternoon. Mr. Taft will also make a little speech at Ellsworth.

The President left everybody in Bar Harbor happy. After being lavishly entertained by the Summer colony he met the townspeople today on the Village Green and made a little speech to them. He spoke of the value of vacations. The day was raw and blustery and rain began to fall as the President spoke. It did not dampen the enthusiasm of the crowd in the least. They all seemed glad to see him. Mrs. Taft also was recognized by the throng and greeted with applause. The President was introduced by first selectman J. E. Burke, Jr.

As soon as the President had finished his speech he again mounted the coach which was tooted by Philip Livingston, of New York, and with another flourish of trumpets was away for Seal Harbor. Arriving there he and his party were entertained at luncheon by Mrs. Mark Hanna. Tonight the party was entertained at lunch by Mrs. Charlemagne Tower at her place, two miles from the harbor.

Mr. Taft in his speech said in part: "One of the things which forces itself upon the mind of one visiting such a country as this is the fact that the American people have learned a good deal in the last geenration. In my father's time he thought, although a hard working lawyer, that two weeks was ample vacation time during the entire year and when I came to the bar he suggested that if I stayed at home during the Summer months I would make a good deal more money than if I went away.

"But the American people have found out that there is such a thing as exhausting the capital of one's health and constitution and that two or three months' vacation after the hard and nervous strain to which one

SUSPECTED OF KILLING RAWN

Negro Chauffeur Once Employed by Railroad President, Arrested—Mrs. Rawn Still Declares Husband Murdered.

Chicago, July 22.—Ernest Stevens, a negro chauffeur, employed recently by Mr. Rawn, was arrested here late today as a suspect in connection with the death of Ira G. Rawn, president of the Monon Road. Stevens was discharged December last and as late as last May is declared to have threatened Mr. Rawn's life.

The arrest of Ernest Stevens also known as Hoffman, was made on information supplied by N. P. Cullen, president of the Commercial Mercantile Company, of Chicago, a friend of the former Monon president. Cullen swore to an affidavit to the effect that he heard the negro referring to Mr. Rawn say: "I'll get that white man—him, I'll get him."

Stevens was employed by Mr. Rawn from May, 1908, to December, 1909, when, it is said, he was discharged for disobeying orders.

Assistant Chief of Police Schuettler said that aside from this the detective had secured no evidence whatever against Stevens.

Although too ill to attend her husband's funeral, Mrs. Ira G. Rawn, widow of the late President of the Monon Road, late today made a detailed statement to a stenographer of the shooting of Mr. Rawn at his Summer home in Winnetka early last Wednesday morning.

In a general way the statement bears out the stories of the death of Mr. Rawn as told by the dead man's son-in-law, R. G. Coburn. Mrs. Rawn says she and her husband were awakened by a noise on the first floor of the house, that Mr. Rawn picked up his revolver and started down stairs. Then, says Mrs. Rawn, she heard a noise of some sort, apparently on the stairway, and a shot or shots.

The police, however, have seized upon three points in Mrs. Rawn's statement that they consider of importance in connection with the investigation of the mysterious death. The first is the declaration by Mrs. Rawn, that she is certain of having heard but one shot; the second is her assertion that Mr. Coburn, her son-in-law, preceed her downstairs and he had turned on the lights before she reached her husband's body and the third is the statement that Mr. Rawn was found lying squarely on his back.

The police say these three points support that Mr. Rawn killed himself. Friends of the Rawn family insist that Mrs. Rawn's description of what occurred Wednesday morning is further evidence that Mr. Rawn was murdered.

The following question was put to Mrs. Rawn regarding the point of hearing a shot or shots fired:

"You say you are not clear as to whether you heard one shot or two shots?"

"I could not tell you. I heard a shot and then screamed and I don't know whether it was one or two. I could not tell you about that. I heard one shot.

Mrs. Rawn said that on the night previous to the shooting she and her

A FAR EAST BANK ROBBED OF BONDS

Papers Valued at $70,000 Stolen From American Office of Institution.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS THEFT

Robbery Discovered Week After Manager Had Gone to Europe—All in Railroad Bonds—Were Taken From Vault.

New York, July 22.—The Russo-Chinese Bank, one of the most powerful financial institutions in the Far East, is short $70,000 in negotiable bonds, which disappeared from its branch office here some time last week, and there is no clue to the thief.

Announcement of the loss was made today by the bank and was confirmed by its counsel, but only the most meagre details are thus far availble. All inquiries were referred by the bank to its counsel, who replied in turn that, without the permission of the bank, they could give out only a very circumscribed statement.

These are the facts as he gave them. The Russo-Chinese Bank in this city has no vaults of its own, but rents vaults in a nearby bank, the name of which is withheld. Some time ago—precisely when is not stated—a safety deposit box containing the missing securities, was taken from the neighboring vaults to the second floor of the bank.

On Thursday the loss of the securities became known. Several employes of the bank had keys to the box, but none of them had disappeared, and none of them is mentioned as under suspicion, although a rigid examination of the circumstances surrounding the loss is being made. Thus far the facts on which to base an examination are so slight that no complaint has been made to the police and no private detective agency has been called on. Counsel could not even say when the securities were last seen or checked up.

Gustave Gortz, now in Europe, whither he left on his vacation two weeks ago, is manager of the Russo-Chinese bank here.

A list of the missing securities has been furnished to all bankers as follows: Southern Railway development and general mortgage 4 per cent. bonds $25,000; Union Pacific convertible 4 per cent. bonds, $30,000; Southern Pacific convertible 4 per cent. bonds, $10,000; Norfolk & Western 4 per cent. bonds, $1,000.

TRAGEDY IN IREDELL.

Young Woman Shot Through the Heart—Probably Suicide.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Statesville, July 21.—A distressing tragedy occurred in the northern portion of the county early yesterday morning, when Miss Annie Moore, a respected young woman of that community, either accidentally or intentionally shot and killed herself with a revolver. The bullet passed through her heart, and death was almost instantaneous. While there was rumor that the young woman had taken her life because of a love affair, the family and intimate friends of the girl say this report is unfounded and it is the general belief that the tragedy was an accident.

Miss Moore got up early Wednesday morning and after eating breakfast, went to the room of her brother to clean it up for the day. A pistol belonging to her brother was on the mantel in the room. Soon a shot was heard and when Mrs. Moore rushed to the room she met her daughter at the door. The young woman fell to the floor and died in a few minutes. The pistol was found on the floor. It is believed that the gun was discharged when the young woman picked it up to place it elsewhere.

DECLARES TARIFF WAS NOT REVISED

Cummins Asserts That Pledge of the Republicans Was Violated.

ATTACK MADE ON LEADERS

Says Aldrich and Cannon Never intended to Fulfill Pledge—Exponent of Progressive Republican Idea.

Council Grove, Kas., July 22.—Senator Albert B. Cummins, of Iowa, in a speech before a Chautauqua audience here tonight asserted that the pledge of the Republican National platform for a revision of the tariff was not fulfilled, and that Senator Aldrich and Speaker Cannon and the others who took the lead in framing the tariff bill, had never attempted, and never intended to keep the pledges of the party.

Senator Cummins came into the home of one of the Kansas regular Congressmen—Representative James M. Miller to give this message.

Cannon and Aldrich, he declared, and other stand-pat leaders were driving the nation into socialism or co-operative control and away from the individual or competive theory.

I am an exponent of the progressive Republican idea," he said. "I believe that the Republican party can be made the most progressive party on earth, the one that does things for the good of the whole country. But the special interest man must be eliminated. That is my sermon.

"Speaker Cannon and Senator Aldrich are driving the country into a socialistic form of government and industry because of thier interest in promoting the cause of monopolies. They are unwilling to take measures to prevent the rapidly growing tendency toward monopoly or to disintegrate and destroy the monopolies already in existence, whereby the prices of commodities are fixed, not by the usual laws of trade, but by the will of a single man or a group of men."

After stating that there was a technical promise in the platform of the republican national convention to revise the tariff downward or upward, but that it simply pledged itself to make such revision of the tariff as would equalize the cost of production here and abroad and make competition possible in this country in many lines," Senator Cummins said:

"It was the duty of Congress to make this revision. Congress did not do it. It did not even attempt to do so. Under the leadership of Cannon and Aldrich the tariff was revised without the slightest heed to the cost of production anywhere. It is of no avail to reduce the duties on any commodity if the duty is left so high that the producer can maintain his price by keeping out competition or even make his prices higher than before and still having lower duties. Some duties were reduced but not so it would benefit the American people in any way because tuere was no effort made to get at the productive cost of article.

"In many cases the charges were left so high that the price on many articles was increased in the face of a reduced tariff and because the domestic manufacturers were not afraid of foreign competition.

"During all the long debate on the Tariff bill, Senator Aldrich never attempted to apply the standard of the Republican platform pledge. He and his followers openly and contemptuously repudiated every word of that platform pledge.

"It was an open and explicit repudiation of our platform and a perversion of the protective theory. I am not an insurgent Republican, if it is said that I am insurging against the Republican National platform. I am insurging against men of the Cannon, Aldrich stripe—men who are openly violating the pledges of the party and are advancing the cause of monopolistic control of industry."

DR. CRIPPEN STILL AT LARGE.

Many Suspects Have Been Detained by London Police.

London, July 22.—Although many innocent men have been detained by the police on suspicion that they were Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, who is wanted by the authorities on the assumption that he may be able to throw some light on the mystery surrounding the disappearance of his wife, Belle Elmore, Scotland Yard still is without any reliable news as to his whereabouts.

An increasing number of stories are coming into London from the continent giving what their senders believe are clues of the movements or whereabouts of Crippen and Miss Leneve, his typist, but up to the present none of these has proved of value.

PAY FINE, GET PRISONERS

Farmers Carry Them Off to Help Harvest Their Crops.

Georgetown, Ky., July 22.—A novel method to save the wheat crop of Scott county was resorted to today when a number of farmers appeared before the county judge and paid the fines of ten prisoners in jail in order to get help to harvest the crop.

In several instances the fines ran as high as $30. All of the prisoners went willingly.

THE CONVENTIONS EITHER OR BOTH

Split Seems Inevitable in Democracy of Sixth North Carolina District.

WRIGHTSVILLE IMBROGLIO

Following Nomination of Clark, Faction Favorable to Godwin Held Further Convention Yesterday and Named Man.

Unless the State committee intervenes and reconciles the factions, it seems now practically certain that the Democracy of the Sixth North Carolina District will not present a solid front to the enemy in the Congressional election to be held in November.

Following the nomination of Hon. Oscar L. Clark, of Bladen, by a majority of the representation on the floor of the convention when it was called to order at Wrightsville Beach on Thursday at noon, a little after 1 o'clock yesterday morning on the 43rd ballot, the Godwin men on the various delegations immediately thereafter assembled and after taking a recess from 2 A. M., until 10 o'clock yesterday morning, gathered again and re-nominated their man on the first ballot, bringing on a complication in the party ranks that it is feared may result disastrously.

The Star yesterday morning carried the story of the convention up to the nomination of Mr. Clark and the assembling of the Godwin forces immediately thereafter, both factions claiming for themselves the strictest regularity and each side branding the other as "insurgents" or "usurpers." Party leaders strove in vain for harmony and appeal after appeal was made to party pride of all concerned, but without effect. Unless the State committee now takes up the case on appeal of one side or the other or upon its own initiative, it is certain that two tickets will be in the field in opposition to the Republican nominee in November. Yesterday the outlook seemed hopeless for any sort of a reconciliation between the factions.

Weary and worn with the strife of the battle of the afternoon and night, delegates to the convention which nominated Mr. Clark came up to the city from the beach on special cars of the Tidewater Power Company at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning, many of the delegates leaving on the early morning and later trains for their homes. The Godwin men, however, remained in the city, these being largely from Robeson, Brunswick and Harnett counties, and promptly at the hour named for the second convention were in the hall at Lumina to the number of something over a hundred to take further part in the deliberations. There was a sprinkling of other delegates also present to witness the proceedings but they took no part in the meeting.

The Second Convention.

Pursuant to recess the "Godwin convention" was called to order by Chairman Geo. H. Bellamy at 10 o'clock in the midst of great enthusiasm among the Godwin men assembled. J. C. Clifford, Esq., campaign manager for Mr. Godwin, was at the steering wheel and things moved along as sweetly and serenely as a Mid-Summer's day. Chairman Bellamy declared his convention the regular one and classed the other as a "body of insurgents." Committees on Credentials and Permanent Organization had been named at the night session, with the exception of Cumberland and New Hanover, which were not represented and these had met some time in the wee sma' hours and decided upon the plan of action.

The committee on organization was composed of J. W. Smith, of Bladen; S. W. Smith, of Brunswick; Henry Coleman, of Columbus, and Chas. Ross, of Harnett. This committee made report upon the convening of the morning session naming Geo. H. Bellamy for chairman and L. S. Fefel, of Brunswick, and B. L. Stevens, of Harnett, as permanent secretaries. The committee on credentials also made report, unseating a part of the New Hanover delegation, although they were not represented, and naming J. H. Sykes, C. A. Turley, P. S. Reville, P. D. Satchwell, O. H. Kennedy, J. B. Mercer, T. W. Wood, Jas. A., Sneeder, Rev. J. A. Smith, H. C. Moore, J. F. Smith and H. L. Mason in their stead. The report in detail as to New Hanover, except names of delegates was as follows:

"In New Hanover county we find that no primary votes was taken in any of the precincts. We further find that there were 23 delegates present from the various precincts of the said county who had been elected as delegates by friends of Hon. H. L. Godwin and desired and demanded in the county convention that their strength be cast for H. L. Godwin, that the remaining delegates present favored the nomination of Hon. Herbert McClammy. We therefore recommend that the votes of New Hanover county be cast as follows:

Herbert McClammy 30.50
H. L. Godwin 11.50

There were also some changes in the Cumberland delegation, although not represented and some correction of irregularities in Harnett. This com-

Sailors Won Beautiful Game From the Railroaders on Local Grounds Yesterday—Brooks Yielded But Few Hits.

Where They Play Today.

Raleigh at Goldsboro.
Rocky Mount at Wilmington.
Wilson at Fayetteville.

The Sailors succeeded in putting one man across in the fourth inning, and this was sufficient to win one of the classiest games that has been seen on the local grounds this season.

Rocky Mount made a desperate effort to tie the score in the ninth by sending in pinch hitters, "Big Chief" Thorp and Ohl, the Chief fouled one to catcher after two strikes had been called, and Ohl was out on first. With the exception of one excusable fumble by Cooper, both teams played errorless game.

Brooks held the heavy hitters to three "badly scattered" hits, while the locals fattened their averages with eight big juicy swats, three of these going to Burke.

Forgue started the game with a single to left after Gillespie had skied to centre, but was caught attempting the second station, and Stein, next up, struck out. Wilmington was out in order in the first, but after the Railroaders had been retired in neat style in the second frame, Burke started off with a long one to centre, which ticketed him to second, was advanced to third on Mills' sacrifice, but Hanks hit a foul to Dussault and "Rube" fanned.

Rocky Mount had only three men up in the third and in Wilmington's half Kite was issued a pass to the first station, Brooks sacrificed him to second, but Dubbs and Cooper were out on first, Kite dying on third.

Forgue started the fourth by fanning, Stein singled to centre, but Creagan was Brooks' second victim in the inning and Stein was caught in the act of purloining second. Tydeman started off with a neat single to left, and was advanced by Burke, who beat out a bunt. Mills struck out, Hanks make first on a bunt, Howard fanned, but Kite came up with a hit over third, scoring Tydeman. Brooks next flew to right, which retired the side.

In the fifth Rocky Mount was out in one, two, three order, and Dubbs started the last half with a single to right, was sacrificed by Cooper, but Tydeman and Dubbs were retired by a fast double play, third to second to first. Both sides were out in order in the sixth, seventh and eighth, and in the ninth Thorpe was sent in to bat for Dussault and fouled to catcher, Ohl, batting for McCathran, was out short to first, Gillespie, the next man up, got the third hit for the visitors, but Forgue was out pitcher to first.

Brooklet Trills.

Another one which was'er game.

Attendance was a little better yesterday, but we must have a grandstand full today.

Kite was the only one who got a free pass yesterday, and he went to third before the side was retired.

Bert Kite continues to feature with the stick, having brought in the winning run with a timely bingle to left.

Hanks was a bright particular star in center, pulling down several difficult ones apparently without an effort.

Burke is leading the league in batting this week, having an average of .450, or nine hits out of twenty times at bat.

One of the players, who held down the turnstile job was surely working in the interest of the team. He didn't know one of those "Comp." tickets at all not even when presented by the "newspaper guys."

A double-header is announced for today, commencing at 2:30 the grandstand should be full to overflowing for you'll get two of as fine games as you ever witnessed, all for one admission. "Big Chief" Thorpe will be sent in for at least one of the games, and if Howard is the opposing artist, which is likely, there will be some considerable fur flying.

LANGFORD-KAUFMAN BOUT.

Arrangements Made for Match in Philadelphia, August 10th.

Philadelphia, July 22.—Arrangements were completed here today for a six-round bout between Sam Langford and Al. Kaufman at the Philadelphia National Baseball Park on the night of August 10. Harry Edwards, the promoter, announces that if the weather is unfavorable on that night the bout will be held on the first clear night following. The men will meet at catch-weights.

THREE PITCHERS IN LINE-UP

Hearne Pitched Magnificent Game for Wilson, While Mayer Had an Off Day for Fayetteville—Score Five to Nothing.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., July 22.—With three pitchers in the line-up, and only four men playing their former positions, the Highlanders lost their third home game of the season, Wilson winning 5 to 0. Mayer was in poor form and allowed 11 hits, while Hearne held the locals to one. O'Halloran's brilliant fielding, a magnificent belated throw from third by Boyle and Hearne's great pitching were the features.

SHOT FORMER PREMIER.

Attempt to Kill Antonia Maura, of Spain—Would-Be Assassin.

Barcelona, July 22.—Antonia Maura, former Spanish premier, was wounded today by a would-be assassin. His assailant was arrested. His name is Manuel Posa and he is a native of Barcelona.

Posa fired three shots at Senor Maura was leaving a train, wounding him in the leg. The ex-premier was hurried on board the steamer Miramar, where a doctor dressed his wounds, which are said to be very slight. He left immediately on board the steamer for the Island of Majoria.

Posa gained knowledge of the fact that Maura was to pass through Barcelona on his way to Palma, where he was going to spend the Summer with his family. Owing to the excitement in radical circles extra police precautions were taken to guard Senor Maura and it has not yet been established how Posa eluded the authorities and got near enough to shoot the ex-premier.

DECIDES FIGHT BETS.

Corbett, Official Commissioner, Answers Queries About Battle.

San Francisco, July 22.—Tom Corbett, official betting commissioner for the Jeffries-Johnson fight, has answered a number of inquiries in regard to bets on the battle. He said:

"The bettor wins who wagered Johnson won in fifteen rounds. The other bettor loses who bet Jeffries would last fifteen rounds. Hhe stayed only fourteen and a fraction, and it would have been necessary for the bell to ring at the end of the fifteenth to win that bet.

"Other novel bets were also made. One fellow bet a hundred that the fight wouldn't go fifteen rounds. He won. Another bet that Johnson would be even money at the ringside, and he also cashed, as the negro ruled at evens with Jeffries along about the twelfth and fourteenth rounds."

New York, July 22.—When Princess Lwoff Parlaghy returns to New York six weeks hence she is going to have seventeen servants instead of an even dozen, which she took away with her to Paris. She is also going to pay $3,500 a month for her rooms in a New York hotel, and this is under a year's contract; also her highness is going to write a "very sharp letter to the Pullman car president and demand that her private car be painted a whiter white or she will refuse to ride in the car," her chamberlain announces. Then, too, the princess is very much grieved over the fact that her private treasurer only spent $250,000 of her alleged $1,000,000 yearly income in eleven months. The princess will also bring two private physicians instead of one and all on account of the shocking clothes worn by American women, the clothes getting on the princess' nerves. Thus the reason for two physicians. To help pass away her time the princess will paint a portrait of President Taft and give it to charity.

MOST THRILLING OF SEASON

Ran For Eleven Innings at Goldsboro Yesterday, Giants Finally Winning Five to Four Score Twice Tied—The Game.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., July 22.—Today's game was the most thrilling and hard fought contest witnessed here this season. In the first Raleigh found Merchant for three of her six hits, Goldsboro tied the score twice and in the eleventh Daily singled, was sacrificed and scored on Merchant's drive to left. Both teams fielded brilliantly, especially Hobbs, Gates and Handiboe, who played first, MacDonald being unwell today.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Boston, July 22.—Boston hit the ball hard with men on bases and won from St. Louis today, 6 to 3. A peculiar double-play was a feature. In the second inning with Stahl on first base Lord popped a fly to Wallace and Stahl was caught off the base. Lord, however, blocked the shortstop's throw and Stahl was called out for interference.

TRAGEDY MARKS GAME OF BALL

One Man Killed and Another Fatally Wounded in Duel With Constables at Maxmeadows, Va.—Robert Hudson the Victim.

Roanoke, Va., July 22.—Robert Hudson was shot through the heart and instantly killed, Ernest Hudson, aged 19, son of Robert Hudson, was shot through the abdomen and fatally wounded and R. A. Walk, a constable, was shot through the arm at a baseball game at Maxmeadows, Va., today when Constable George Alford went to arrest the elder Hudson.

Walk went to the assistance of Alford and Ernest Hudson went to his father's assistance.

Walk fired four times, two shots striking the elder Hudson, a third hitting young Hudson and the fourth passing through the officer's own arm. No other shots were fired. Walk surrendered and was taken to the county jail at Wytheville. Two brothers of Robert Hudson met similar deaths to that which befell him today. Charles Hudson was killed some years ago at Maxmeadows and Richard Hudson was killed at Coeburn.

ROOSEVELT HAS CALLERS.

Animated Discussion of Literature at His Editorial Offices.

New York, July 22.—Theodore Roosevelt spent today at his editorial offices in an animated discussion of literature.

First, State Senator George A. Cobb was closeted with the Colonel. At the end of their conference Col. Roosevelt said with a smile:

"We had a very interesting talk on literature."

Senator Cobb is the majority leader in the State Senate, and fathered the defeated direct nominations bill, endorsed by Col. Roosevelt through Lloyd C. Griscom.

Representative Herbert Parsons, of New York, called next with State Senator J. Mayhew Wainwright. At the end of their conference Col. Roosevelt said with another smile: "I have had another very interesting talk on literature."

Other callers were Representative Sulzer, who is credited with being anxious to become the Democratic nominee for Governor of New York this Fall, and Representative Simmons, of Niagara Falls, and Calder, of Brooklyn. The invitations Frank Harper, Mr. Roosevelt's secretary, has received since the Colonel returned to America total just 2,034. The Colonel promised today to speak before the Republican Club at New York on Lincoln's birthday, on February 12, 1911.

John F. O'Rourke, a New York contractor, appeared with a roll of blue prints and pictures of battleships. He has a scheme for raising the wreck of the battleship Maine in Havana harbor, for which Congress has appropriated $300,000. When Col. Roosevelt heard that Mr. O'Rourke thought he knew how to effect this, he asked him to call and explain his plan.

THE DISTRICT CONFERENCE

Second Day's Session at Burgaw—High Testimonial to Presiding Elder Cuninggim—Mr. H. G. Bowden, Secretary.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., July 22.—The second day of the Wilmington District Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was begun at 9:15 A. M. today. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. T. H. Bain, pastor of Town Creek circuit, singing hymn No. 492, "O, for a Closer Walk With God." and being led in prayer by Rev. J. M. Lowder. The morning lesson was read from the 8th chapter of Romans, at the conclusion of which No. 461, "How Firm a Foundation," was sung.

The journal of Thursday evening's session was read and approved on motion of Mr. W. B. Cooper Mr. C. C. Covington was elected leader for the Superannuated Endowment Home Movement.

Jacksonville and Richlands were called and Rev. W. E. Brown, the pastor, and Sheriff F. W. Hargett, reported some organized adult classes for their Sunday Schools.

Mt. Tabor circuit was called and Rev. W. B. Humble, the pastor, reported among other things a new church building to suit modern conditions. In connection with this Rev. W. V. McRae made a ringing speach for modernly equipped buildings to supplant our present one-room houses o. worship.

Rev. E. E. Rose, pastor of Mt. Olive and Faison's, and Rev. R. F. Taylor, pastor of Mt. Olive circuit, both of the Newbern district, were introduced to the conference.

Scott's Hill circuit was called and Rev. C. T. Rogers, and Messrs. Amos Batson, J. T. Kerr and W. B. Simmons reported some good work in missionary lines.

Messrs. Wm. E. Springer and B. C. Moore were on motion of the Presiding Elder elected trustees of the District Parsonage.

Shallotte circuit was called and reported a systematic training of the children.

Cards were read bearing greetings from Revs. J. C. Wootten, of Grace Church, Wilmington, and C. P. Snow, of Swansboro, who were providentially hindered from attending. For Grace, Mr. Henry Bowden, the assistant secretary of the Y. M. C. A., reported some good things in missionary work both at home and abroad.

Rev. R. E. Peele, pastor of the Burgaw Baptist church, was introduced to the conference.

Whiteville and Vineland was called, and through their pastor, Rev. D. C. Geddie, and Mr. Arthur Baldwin, reported one good revival held and a more efficient work in their Sunday Schools and Epworth League.

At 11:15 the conference adjourned to hear Dr. D. B. Zollicoffer, leader of the Laymen's Missionary Movement for the North aCrolina annual conference.

Dr. Zollicoffer announced hymn No. 332, "Thou, My Everlasting Portion," and called on Mr. Henry Bowden to lead in prayer. After singing No. 330, "My Hope is Built on Nothing Less," he appealed as only he can, to the laymen of the district to go gack to their homes and work. Often during the discourse there were wet eyes, and all went away realizing that they owed their fellowmen a duty they could only pay by their lives. The service was concluded with prayer led by Rev. R. E. Peel, and singing hymn No. 422, "Work, for the Night is Coming."

The afternoon session began promptly at 3 P. M., devotional services being conducted by Rev. W. E. Brown, pastor of Jacksonville and Richlands, singing hymn No. 272, "Just as I Am Without One Plea," and leading the conference in prayer. The lesson of the hour was read from the second chapter of Phillipians. Hymn No. 317, "More Love to Thee, O Christ," concluded the service.

The secretary read the journal of the morning session and after a small addition, they were approved.

The Chadbourn charge was called and Rev. C. E. Vale and Mr. Rowland and Mr. Thompson reported.

Kenansville circuit was called and the pastor, Rev. J. M. Lowder, reported some good, and some bad conditions he is having to face.

Mr. Henry Bowden presented a resolution which was followed by a substantial purse, expressing as far as words can, the Conference's regard for the Presiding Elder, Rev. W. L. Cuninggim.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted as follows:

"Whereas, According to the law of our church no preacher can remain on the same charge longer than four years, and,

"Whereas, our beloved brother, Rev. W. L. Cuninggim, will have finished the time limit as Presiding Elder of the Wilmington District at the close of the conference year, therefore be it

"Resolved, That we, the members of the District Conference, now in session at Burgaw, N. C., wish hereby to express our deep regret that he can no longer serve us as our leader and Presiding Elder, for he has won our hearts' affections and by the virtues and graces of his Godly life and character has left an indelible impress for good on us who have been privileged to know him, and especially those of us who have labored under his superintendency.

"Gentle, lovable and considerate of the feelings of others he has shown by both words and acts a loving sympathetic nature towards his brethren and friends. This district, under his wise administration, has gone forward as never before and wherever he may go our prayers shall ever ascend to God for him and all and pray that he may be spared to the church for many years of still greater usefulness.

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the journals of this District Conference, a copy forwarded by the secretary to the Raleigh Christian Advocate, and that a copy be presented to Brother Cuninggim.

T. H. BAIN,
E. R. WELCH,
C. E. VALE,
H. G. BOWDEN,
Committee.

Rev. E. R. Welch offered a resolution thanking the people of Burgaw for their thorough way of entertaining the conference.

New River circuit was called and Rev. J. Louis King, and Mr. L. J. Lewis made an interesting report.

The following delegates were elected to the Annual Conference: Messrs. R. I. Durham, A. M. Burton, F. W. Hargitt and B. C. Moore.

Fifth Street Church was called and through their pastor, Rev. K. D. Holmes, presented a good conference report.

On motion of Rev. W. L. Rexford, Mr. Henry Bowden was elected District Secretary for the Epworth League.

On nomination of Mr. A. M. Burton Mr. W. R. Newberry, of Magnolia, was re-elected as District Leader for the Laymen's Missionary Movement.

Bladen Street Church was called and the pastor, Rev. W. L. Rexford, reported 43 additions this year.

Rev. W. V. McRae invited the District Conference to convene in Southport next year and it was unanimously accepted.

The business session of the District Conference was completed at 6:30 and the benediction was by the Presiding Elder, Rev. W. L. Cuninggim.

Religious services will be conducted at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. tomorrow.

AFFAIRS AT STATE CAPITAL

Governor's Mother Not Improved—Blind Tiger Convicted—Corporation Assessments—Only One Charter Issued.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 22.—There is still no material improvement in the condition of Mrs. Maria Kitchin, mother of Governor Kitchin, and Congressman Claude Kitchin, who has been in a precarious condition at her home near Scotland Neck for several weeks. A telephone message to the Governor this morning was to the effect that there is just a bare chance for her recovery, although she may linger for some time. Mrs. Kitchin is 63 years old.

Eight applicants for license to practice osteopathy are being examined in this city by the State Board of Examiners created by the last Legislature. The examiners and their subjects are Dr. A. R. Tucker, Durham, Gynecology, Diagnosis and Hygiene; Dr. R. M. Armstrong, Salisbury, "Obstetrics, Pediatrics, Theory and Practice; Dr. Earle J. Carson, Bacteriology, Chemistry and Pathology; Dr. Elizabeth H. Tucker, Greensboro; Physiology, Histology and Neurology; Dr. H. W. Glascock, Raleigh, Anatomy and surgery. Dr. Grascock is president of the State association.

Engineer Walter Horton, running a Seaboard Air Line northbound passenger train yesterday had an unusual experience with a negro fireman, William Thomas, in that Horton having insisted on better service at the firebox with a threat to change firemen when he reached Raleigh, Thomas compelled him to stop the train out on the road beyond Apex and let him off immediately. Thomas "got the drop" on the engineer with what Horton thought was a chunk of coal, but that Thomas now claims as only a cake of soap. Thomas was arrested and given a hearing before a justice of the peace here with the result that he was made to pay the costs.

In the closing hours of Wake Superior Court, Oscar Jones, the only blind tiger convicted during the term, procured through counsel the continuation of the prayer for judgment until the next term. This is the case in which Judge Cooke instructed the jury to convict on the admission that the prisoner "loaned" the whiskey to a friend, holding that the act of loaning amounted to a sale of whiskey. This concession was procured by H. E. Norris, as counsel for the negro, he being now, by the way, the nominee in this district for solicitor. It was contended that the trial was unfair through undue influence of Deputy Sheriff Wall, who was sharply criticised in court, and through the position of the court as to "loaning" whiskey constituting sale and the insistence of the judge that this was a case in which it was up to the courts to sustain the police in their efforts to locate blind tigers. Furthermore, that the issue was raised as to the veracity of a negro as against a white man. In view of Judge Cooke's recent criticism of "prohibition" lawyers defending blind tigers it is especially notable that the next solicitor or prosecuting officer for this judicial district in the person of H. E. Norris, procured the escape of this "tiger"—the only one convicted at this term of court.

The work of apportioning the State funds for the public high schools of North Carolina is about completed and is awaiting the final approval of the State Board of Education to which it will be submitted probably tomorrow. There are 175 of these schools, no county being allowed to have over four. The communities in which the schools are located are required, under the State law, to raise as much money toward the support of the school as the State appropriates. Furthermore, in counties which are not receiving State aid for the maintenance of the elementary schools the county boards are also required to appropriate a third of the total amount expended for the school.

Out at the State School for the Blind here this Summer there is extensive repair work going on during the vacation, the principal feature being the installation of thoroughly modern plumbing in the main building which is quite an old building. The new plumbing is in accordance with specifications by the United States department.

Mr. Alfred W. Brown, of Charlotte, was here today before the Corporation Commission protesting against the assessment for taxation just made by the Commission against one of the Charlotte banks on the ground that the assessment is excessive. This is one of the first hearings under the reassessment of corporations now in progress. However, numerous dates for similar hearings by other corporations with "tax assessment" grievances are being set for the next several weeks. As fast as the corporations are assessed the officers are notified with the request that if they have exceptions to the action of the Commission to name them at once.

There was only one charter for a new corporation today. This was for the Wall-Teer Brick Co., Durham, capital $10,000 by W. L. Wall and others for making brick and dealing in stone and various building material.

ELIZABETH COLLEGE.

Extensive Improvements to be Made at Plant in Charlotte.

Charlotte, N. C., July 23.—Improvements that will cost more than $5,000 have been started at Elizabeth College, and when completed will make this already ideal institution even more attractive. The improvements include the complete renovation of the college building and the erection of a handsome entrance to the beautiful college grounds, than which there is no prettier place in Western North Carolina.

Mr. M. Donnelley, a well known decorator, has the contract for the interior work. The dining room will be made very beautiful, the walls to be treated with marbelo, a hard surface that is water and fireproof. The ceiling has been given a delicate cream tint and the woodwork revarnished, the general appearance being exceedingly pretty. All the halls and many of the rooms are being renovated. Every piece of furniture in the building that is not up to the high standard maintained at Elizabeth is being replaced by new. Additional fire escapes are being placed on the outside of the building and all the interior woodwork is also being painted.

The new entrance is to be of a handsome design and will greatly enhance the appearance of the grounds if that be possible. It was designed by Architect Dempwolf, of Yorak, Pa., and the president, Chas. B. King, both of whom devoted much study and thought to it. The structure will be of granite, Indiana limestone, pressed brick and iron. It will stand at the head of Elizabeth avenue, facing the city. When completed the entrance will have cost about $3,000.

President King and his office force are busy preparing for the coming term and present indications are that there will be no more room to spare at this popular institution during the next term.

Many Women who are Splendid Cooks dread having to prepare an elaborate dinner because they are not sufficiently strong to stand over an intensely hot coal range. This is especially true in summer. Every woman takes pride in the table she sets, but often it is done at tremendous cost to her own vitality through the weakening effect of cooking on a coal range in a hot kitchen.

It is no longer necessary to wear yourself out preparing a fine dinner. Even in the heat of summer you can cook a large dinner without being worn out.

New Perfection
WICK BLUE FLAME
Oil Cook-stove

Gives no outside heat, no smell, no smoke. It will cook the biggest dinner without heating the kitchen or the cook. It is immediately lighted and immediately extinguished. It can be changed from a slow to a quick fire by turning a handle. There's no drudgery connected with it, no coal to carry, no wood to chop. You don't have to wait fifteen or twenty minutes till its fire gets going. Apply a light and it's ready. By simply turning the wick up or down you get a slow or an intense heat on the bottom of the pot, pan, kettle or oven, and nowhere else. It has a Cabinet Top with shelf for keeping plates and food hot, drop shelves for coffee, teapot or saucepan, and even a rack for towels. It saves time, worry, health and temper. It does all a woman needs and more than she expects. Made with 1, 2, and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner sizes can be had with or without Cabinet.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the
WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY (Inc.)
Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under act of Congress, March 2nd 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

Saturday, July 23rd, 1910.

Speaker Cannon says the insurgents are guerillas because guerillas fight on both sides, just like, he asserts, the insurgents are doing politically at this time. No doubt Uncle Joe's private opinion is that the insurgents are gorillas.

Some places start in with a ball team in order to demonstrate their metropolitan presumptions and finally relapse into the village state by falling down on their team.

The Republicans declare that the over-production of gold and its great influx into the United States accounts for high prices. If that is true why didn't they put a prohibitive tariff tax on gold and keep it out of the country? Republican sophism is something wonderful to contemplate!

The name of the lady who is running for Governor of New Hampshire is Mrs. Marilla M. Ricker. No doubt she has old man Ricker under one thumb and nobody cares if she gets little old New Hampshire under the other on account of its Republican sins. That State needs punishment for its long-standing perversity in political matters.

There are two good reasons why no State-loving, self-respecting, reasonable white men should care to vote the Republican ticket in North Carolina. One is the horrible reconstruction era and the other is the nightmare of the fusion period. The record of the Republican party in the South and especially in North Carolina entitles it to indecent oblivion instead of tolerance.

It is now reported that China may protest against the recent agreement between Russia and Japan concerning the control of Manchuria. Manchuria nominally belongs to China, but practically is possessed in common by Japan and Russia, which are running the country in spite of any kick that the Chinks may raise. The Chinese Ballinger was entirely too slow in "withdrawing" Manchuria from the danger line of exploitation.

Dr. Pratt, State Geologist, in his forthcoming report estimates that the loss from forest fires in North Carolina last year totaled $3,000,000 and that nearly all of this immense destruction could have been prevented. The loss not only included standing timber, but houses and other property. When will the State of North Carolina and the people of the State do something to lessen the dangers from this source of destruction that annually bears so heavily on our timber resources?

A "distracted" lady writes to a New York paper inquiring for a "permanent cure for fleas," which are being impartially distributed by a pet cat to the members of the household and visitors, including the family minister. We dislike to butt in to New York affairs from the direction of North Carolina, but we would suggest to the lady to singe the cat every morning so the fleas cannot possibly have and place to roost. It doesn't make any difference whether the cat "comes back" or not after its first singeing.

It reads like the ancient days of Republicanism in New Hanover county, when "Chicken Bill" could throw a whole convention into disorder by rising to "a pint er order" which invariably was the signal of great disorder, uproar and irrepressible hostilities till the breath of all the delegates gave out. Well, it wasn't quite so bad as that in the Democratic Congressional Convention at Wrightsville Beach on Thursday, but it certainly reminds one of the hey-dey of "Chicken Bill", black politician, who never got anything out of a Republican convention but the satisfaction of bringing on a row.

The distinguished Dr. George T. Winston, formerly president of the North Carolina State University and later president of the State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, at Raleigh, has been arrested in Asheville on account of some chickens. In justice to this able and learned gentleman it should be stated that the chickens are his own. His trouble is that a neighbor alleges that his cocks crow so lustily early in the morning that they wake up every lazy lout in the neighborhood. It is further alleged that the Winston chickens scratch up the gardens and fields and manifest all the predatory inclination of a trust. Dr. Winston went into court and stood manfully by his chickens, declaring that they are as ladylike and gentlemanly as any chickens, and we guess he is just about right. We don't know what the court is going to do with Dr. Winston about those chickens, but we are first, last and all the time for the man who has chickens and shows any inclination to press an invitation for dinner any day that he has chicken pie.

CALAMITY HOWLERS.

The speculators who take plunges into the market expecting to make great fortunes by Napoleonic financial exploits, probably don't do as much harm to the business of this country as do the calamity howlers. When confidence is at a low ebb the pessimist get in his worst work with his "I told you so" and further woeful predictions that the country is going to the dogs. In times of business and financial stress there are people who will tell you that business and prosperity have seen their last days and that we will never again see the good times like those through which we have passed. Nevertheless, things run on normally for awhile, business resumes its sway, panics disappear and confidence has another run.

Panics come and go but business of some kind stays all the time. Business conducted with good judgment can even withstand the panics and fair business is generally the rule, while panics and loss of confidence come along only periodically. Wild cat operations in speculative movements start the panic ball rolling and the pessimists keep it rolling till the confidence of every business man in the entire country is shaken. When business men loose their nerve, everybody follows suit and stagnation is the result. The gloomy predictions of the pessimists can make an old granny hide her dollar in her stocking or frighten the captain of industry so he will hold up his project for entering into a million dollar undertaking. This shaking of the confidence of the grannies and the industrial promoters of the country later takes hold of the masses and finally permeates the whole business, industrial and financial woof and warp of the whole country.

When confidence has been shaken the effect remains a long time, because the pessimists continue to get in their work, while the optimists have judgment suspended and are waiting for good times to come again. The optimists are always expecting good times and do their best to promote prosperity, but the pessimists, especially if they belong to the millionaire class, keep things flat and retard confidence. That is the reason it takes so long to get rid of the consequences of a panic, whereas, if confidence were restored the granny's money would come out of her stocking and the captain of industry would build his factory and thus business would soon resume its sway.

It is now three years since the Roosevelt panic swooped down on the country and yet we find its influences still at work, not only affecting the financial situation, seriously injuring industrial operations and causing a standstill in the construction of new industries and in the launching of new undertakings. It is believed that the spirit of pessimism is more responsible for it than anything else and we are rather inclined to believe that there is a good deal of truth in it. Most everybody is prepared to believe that if a spirit of optimism will restore confidence, money would come out of hiding and the people would go on with their business so that good times would soon be the result. It is fear that prevents the investment of capital and it is the tieing up of capital that accounts for stagnation. Idle capital creates no business but invested capital does something.

The biggest lot of pessimists in this country are the bear operators in New York and when they raise a howl the balance of the country trembles. It is against this class of pessimists that the New York Herald is waging a fight. The Herald is attempting to discredit the calamity howlers and it is publishing news from all over the country to show that there is no real reason why confidence should not be restored on account of the actually satisfying conditions that are prevailing all over the country. The Herald publications are rediculing the pessimistic talk of the bear operators and they are generally making good in doing it.

In Wednesday's Herald it will be noted that the optimists are having their inning. Mr. William Barnes, Jr., a prominent newspaper man, having returned from Europe, says the general situation is not such as to cause talk of trouble in the financial future. Interviews with leading Chicago bankers show that they are extremely cheerful, every contingency in the West having been provided for, according to their assertion. The Boston bankers declare that there is nothing wrong and that there is no fear of tight money in the Fall. Kingdon Gould and Clarence H. Mackay, of New York's financial circle, upon leaving for Europe expressed their faith in the present financial situation in this country, and buyers for American mercantile houses who are returning daily from Europe bring encouraging reports regarding business conditions.

Thus it goes, and when the country generally gets to talking and believing that way, this country will again begin to feel the impulse of progress and prosperity, only delayed at present by the Wall Street pessimists. The Herald also gets cheering news from the South, its Atlanta correspondents stating that agriculturally and industrially, consequently financially, the country is in splendid condition and that there is no phase of the situation that can be construed into ground for fear. All along the line the Herald is exposing the efforts of the Wall Street bears who take advantage of crop and other rumors, whether true or false, to gain their own ends. That valued New York contemporary is on the right track and the country generally will wish for it a complete victory over the bears and pessimists who are standing in the way of complete recovery from panic conditions throughout the United States.

CHINA's PROTEST.

Some time ago the Republican administration at Washington appointed a Consul at Mukden, or some other little interior point in China, and led the country to believe that we were going to conquer the Chinese trade. It subsequently turned out that the place of the Consulate was away off in Manchuria and could hardly be reached with a canoe. While we were talking big and inflating ourselves with the customary egotism of the Yankee Nation, what Russia and Japan were doing to Manchuria was a-plenty. These two nations had already so monopolized Manchuria, and their conflicting interests were so great, that they furnished us a modern war of the most shocking proportions. Japan whipped the fight and now that nation and Russia have a common understanding over the spoils.

Japan and Russia recently promulgated a "convention," which, in common parlance, means that they gave publicity to an agreement between them concerning their respective rights and privileges in Manchuria. They gave out the disagreement to other nations and with it handed out a little dope to the effect that the agreement maintained the status quo in Manchuria and would not affect the interests of the United States or other nations. The agreement was marvellously brief and no international agreement ever was expressed in such few words. In fact, it was so short a document that it would take Japan and Russia both put together to interpret it one way or other or any way they please.

We are pretty well satisfied that the United States have no "interest" cinched in Manchuria, at any rate, not of such a nature as to cause this country to raise much of a howl over the action of China and Russia in what will be discovered sooner or later as a concrete gobbling up of a tremendous area of Chinese territory, parceled out to suit themselves. It is not known how the government at Washington regards the Russo-Japanese convention, but most likely under the circumstances our government will not raise any considerable amount of disturbance over the situation.

It seems, however, according to a Pekin special to the New York Herald, that China may make a protest against the agreement. The semi-official press at the Chinese seat of government announces that China will protest against the new combination of these two powers as endangering not only the rights of China, but the equal and opportunity rights of other powers as guaranteed them by China's treaties. The United States has one of these treaties with China and it is noticed that China would carry out the treaty but she is powerless in the hands of Japan and Russia. With significant unanimity the leading Chinese papers, which heretofore have been compelled to avoid discussion of the new agreement, now pronounce it to be manifestly aimed against America and Germany as well as against China.

The prominent Chinese papers openly assert that Great Britain promoted the whole scheme for the purpose of halting American advance in Manchuria and practically forming a quadruple alliance against Germany in Asia and Europe. They argue, therefore, that China's only hope lies in the closest relations—and alliance, if possible—with America and Germany. It is even declared that the agreement between Japan and Russia contains twelve articles in addition to those published, and if that is true, it shows an international duplicity that is likely to bring on trouble. China was not invited to participate in the negotiations and if Great Britain had anything to do with it her influence was not displayed so as you would notice it.

We would not be surprised to see more come of this Russo-Japanese agreement so far as the European nations go, hence we call attention to it here so the situation can be watched. We hardly suppose that the United States will venture to have any entangling alliances with reference to it and our country would not even be mentioned in it in this connection if the parting advice of George Washington had been taken—viz., to attend to our own business and not meddle in foreign affairs.

A whole lot of things in this life would be excruciatingly funny if the consequences would only refuse to be serious.

The Georgians propose to raise a fund of $200,000 to advertise the entire State of Georgia. Half as much as that spent in advertising a real article like North Carolina surely would bring customers to the bargain counter.

CURRENT COMMENT.

They are having fun with S. S. McNinch's name up in the ninth district where he is the Republican candidate for Congress They say the double S. in his name may stand for Sun Shine or Ship Subsidy.—Greensboro Record.

If Dr. Winston makes a speech in his own defense upon the charge of letting his chickens trespass upon a neighbor's premises, it will be a classic. It is to be hoped a stenographer will preserve it for the whole State.—Raleigh News and Observer.

This seems to be rather an off year in baseball circles in the State. Worse broken up teams than the clubs of the Carolina Association have had, with the exception of Greenville, would be hard to imagine. In the Eastern Carolina League three clubs have changed ownership during the season, Wilmington and Raleigh being the latest. In these instances the changes have saved the clubs from disbanding.—Charlotte Chronicle.

When Col. Roosevelt got back to Oyster Bay he announced that he didn't propose to enter politics and would have nothing to say on political matters. Living up to that purpose, he has merely announced that he must find a candidate for Governor of New York and that "Tim" Woodruff, chairman of the State Republican Committee, must be scalped. It is announced to be the Colonel's purpose to have the Woodruff scalp at his belt in less than two weeks. The name of the man picked out by the Colonel to be Governor will be announced at Sagamore Hill some time towards the end of this week or the beginning of the next.—Savannah News.

Mr. J. Ogden Armour, beef magnate, declares that the American housekeepers cannot expect to get cheaper food until the next crop of corn and of cattle shall be marketed. Mr. Armour is a wise man in his generation, but it is safe to say that there will never be cheaper living in this country until there shall be a new crop of statesmen put in control of the government. So long as we persist in boosting the prices of commodities by levying custom house taxes on the importation of competing commodities we shall live in a fenced 'round costly "protective" paradise of our own creation. —Philadelphia Record.

It is well known to the people of the 5th Judicial District that Solicitor Rodolph Duffy did not stand for nomination and after his present term expires he will go back to the practice of law and to his farm. The familiar form, the flashing eye, the eloquent speaker, the fearless prosecuting attorney, the just and clean man that he is, will not be with us much longer in the present capacity. The whole district will miss him. The lawyers with whom he was always in contact will be among those to regret his stepping aside just now for awhile. The district has never had so able a man to serve it and the record that he has made in the minds of the thinking people will some day call him up higher where he can serve them even better. He can fill any office to the credit of the Democratic party and the whole State.—Eastern Carolina News.

In the campaign which resulted in the election of Morehead to Congress no voter in the Fifth district saw oMrehead or heard from him. That was a part of the game, and it was shrewdly worked. He was represented as a progressive manufacturer who believed in the national policy of the Republican party, but was never even called a Republican. His shrewd press agents painted the picture of a business man, wishing protection, but in no sense in sympathy with the pie distributing gang that had disgraced North Carolina. That was the well advertised gold brick that was palmed off on the voters in the Fifth district, and ever since his election it has been "ding-donged" into the ears of the people that Morehead did not care for political life; that he would not accept a renomination; and that he was utterly out of harmony with the North Carolina Republican gang. And yet while the people were asked to swallow such stuff, Morehead's Literary Bureau has been run over time. —Raleigh News and Observer.

When the city of Wilmington was preparing for the visit of President Taft several months ago tungsten arches were established on eight blocks of Front street, three blocks of Market and three of Princess streets. The people of the city were so impressed with the beauty of the lights and with the advertising value of the brilliant illumination that the city fathers cut out the arc lights and have maintained the tungsten arches ever since. Charlotte is called the "City of Electric Energy." Probably no city in the country enjoys cheaper rates for electricity than does Charlotte. And yet Savannah, Norfolk, Wilmington and other cities have us beat when it comes to beautiful street illumination, electric signs, etc. There is little danger of Charlotte losing her prestige as an electric center, but we are certainly not making the best of our opportunity. It is generally through the courtesy of the Charlotte Power Company that the principal streets are given the increased illumination as formed by the strings of incandescents, but even these in comparison with the tungsten arches are back numbers. Charlotte cannot afford to let the other cities of this section so outstrip her in this matter.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The Caucasian has received a letter from an esteemed subscriber in the Fifth Congressional District expressing great regret that Congressman Morehead has several times before announced, and has again announced, that he is not a candidate for re-election to Congress from his district. This subscriber proceeds to say that it is being reported in his community that Morehead will not run again for Congress, because he is afraid that he could not be re-elected, and he further says that this report is hurting the Republican party, and that he thinks it is the duty of Mr. Morehead to accept the nomination and make another fight like he did two years ago and save the district. In reply to this earnest letter from our anxious subscriber, we wish to say that Congressman Morehead knows the present political situation in his district and the State thoroughly, and that it is this knowledge which has forced him to take this position. He knows now that the ring bosses did not want him elected to Congress two years ago, and that if they had had any suspicion that he would have put forward more efforts than they did to defeat his election. He knows that if the rotten "referee system" is to continue, that the machine bosses who run that system would not only not help his election to Congress, but that, with them in charge, his election or the election of any other Republican in the Fifth District would be impossible.—Raleigh Caucasion, (Rep.)

BAD TREATMENT TO AMERICANS

Developments are Looked For in the Case of D. W. McKay, Prisoner.

San Diego, Cay., July 21.—Developments are expected today in the case of D. W. McKay, whose arrest at Tia Juana and alleged ill treatment by Mexican officials have been brought to the attention of the State Department at Washington.

McKay is due to arrive at Ensenada today an dit is expected that Governor Vega, of Lower California, will act promptly. He presumably already has the papers in the case prepared by McKay's lawyers in this city.

Strangely enough, beyond the fact that McKay' s arrest was the result of his cutting a hole in a wire fence, very little is known as to the reason why that action should have been treated so drastically.

Portland, Ore., July 21.—The 47th biennial convention of the Ancient Order of Hebernians went o record today as unainmously favoring the inclusion of a compulsory course in Irish history in the curriculum of the parochial schools and colleges of the Catholic church. This was the only business of importance transacted at today's session.

LAST FULL DAY IN CAMP

Weather Favors the Boys' Brigade for Once—Swimming Races Yesterday Morning—Return to City Today.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Camp Brunswick, Southport, N. C., July 22.—Detail for today: Capt. Loughlin, officer of the day; Davis, C., corporal of the guard; privates Fergus, Gerdes, Henry; Kermon, Bornemann, L.; Kure, Dixon, C. Fishing squad, Garrison, Kermon, King, E.; Dushan, Burnett, R.; Boney, J.; Huntingto, Gerdes, Henry. By order of

COL. TAYLOR, Commander.

H. KING, Acting Adjutant.

The last full day of our encampment opened gloriously with fair skies and pleasant breezes; the first day since our arrival that it has not rained. As the time for breaking camp arrives, despite the rain and sunless days, it is with a feeling of satisfaction that most of us look back upon what has passed of our 14th encampment. Necessarily detained in our tents a part of the while on account of the weather, we have taken advantage of this time to rest and sleep and we will go back to our homes and vocations refreshed and renewed vigor. The presence of our manager, Mr. Dushan, has also added quite a bit to the pleasure of all in camp. The various athletic events prepared under his direction have been very interesting and helpful to both participants and spectators. They have added a zest to camp life that we all appreciate.

The swimming race was held this morning. The course ran from the steamer Wilmington wharf to the government wharf at the foot of the garrison, a distance of 134 yards. After a hard fought race, Chas. Davis reached the goal first, followed closely by Robt. Kermon. Walker Taylor, Jr., finished third, having out-distanced several strong competitors and pushing the winners hard all the way.

The Brigade wishes to return its hearty thanks to one of our staunch friends, Mr. Junius Davis, for a very generous check which was received this morning. Commissary Sergeant Price soon had the check converted into chickens and watermelons, which were heartily enjoyed at dinner today.

The entire company has been on a fruitless search for two days for an article which none of us can describe. Capt. Garrison awakened the other morning by the guard at 3:15 for the innocent purpose of having him join the fishing squad. This by his own orders, too. Upon being called he informed the squad that he desired a bracket, a bracket for telephone rates, one with two sockets. The luckless guard has been incarcerated in the local asylum for the insane, having spent 48 heart-breaking hours in the search for said article desired by his captain and finally giving away under the strain.

Mr. Huntington, the physical director of the Y. M. C. A., spent last night in camp and led services for us this morning. He enjoyed his short stay quite much and wish he could have been with us longer.

MUNICIPAL LEAGUE MEETING.

Annual Convention of American Association at St. Paul.

Mayor Walter G. MacaRe has received in behalf of himself and members of the Board of Aldermen an invitation to attend the 14th annual convention of the League of American Municipalities, which meets at St. Paul, Minn., August 23rd to 26th, inclusive, and the Mayor thinks that the City of Wilmington should have representation at the meeting. City officials from every section of America will be in attendance and one should gain many points of value from the addresses that will be delivered and from mingling with the delegates. Among the subjects to be considered are: Home rule for cities, government by commission, simplified city government, the city art museum, the street paving problem, what other cities are doing, lines in which some cities excel. Some of the most famous authorities in America will discuss these subjects. The City of St. Paul has provided elaborate entertainment for the guests. On the first day there will be an auto excursion; the second day will be spent in Minneapolis; there will be a municipal parade on the third and on the fourth the visitors will be given a steamboat trip on the Mississippi. There will be a municipal exposition in connection with the convention for the first time in the history of the organization.

Rev. C. F. Whitlock at Rowland.

Rowland Sun: "Rev. C. F. Whitlock, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist Church, in Wilmington, is aiding the pastor of the Baptist Church here in a revival meeting which will continue over Sunday. Rev. Mr. Whitlock is preaching the gospel earnestly and powerfully and should be heard by all of the people of Rowland and vicinity. Much interest is already being manifested in the meeting and the indications point to a great revival. Mr. Whitlock and the pastor request the prayers and co-operation of all the Christian people of the community. Services are held every morning at 10 o'clock and every evening at 8:30."

STREET COMMISSION MEETS

Bridges Across Railroad Tracks Considered at Regular Semi-Monthly Session Yesterday Afternoon.

The Street Commission in regular semi-monthly session for nearly three hours yesterday afternoon adopted a resolution instructing the chairman to notify the Seaboard Air Line Railroad that it must construct and maintain such a bridge across its tracks on Fourth street as to be safe for street cars and fire engines to pass over; received a communication from the A. C. L. relative to the construction of a bridge across its tracks at Sixth street, considered a number of minor matters and discussed at length plans for improving the streets of the city.

The meeting was called to order at 3:30 o'clock by Capt. Louis Belden, chairman, with Messrs. W. E. Worth, W. L. Parsley, R. H. Brady and Geo. H. Heyer, members of the board; City Engineer C. R. Humphreys and the clerk, Mr. J. F. Gause, in attendance. Chairman Belden stated that the drain on Dock street, from 16th to Macomber's ditch, had been completed at a cost of 10 cents per foot.

A communication was read from Mr. W. N. Royal, general manager of the Atlantic Coast Line, in which the writer stated that the abutments and wing walls for the bridge across the company's tracks at Sixth street would be ready by September 15th, when it is presumed that work of constructing the bridge will be begun.

The Hilton Lumber Company, through a communication, called attention to the unsafe condition of the Fourth street bridge over the tracks of the Seaboard Air Line and also referred to the bad condition of Fourth street adjoining the bridge. In this connection a communication from Mr. C. H. Hicks, vice president and general manager of the Seaboard, was read. Mr. Hicks stated that he had instructed the road's master carpenter and superintendent to put the said bridge in thorough condition. Upon motion of Mr. Worth the chairman was instructed to notify Mr. Hicks that a bridge over the tracks of the Seaboard at Fourth street shall be built and maintained in such condition as to be safe to carry street cars and fire engines.

City Engineer Humphreys notified the commission by letter that he had called for bids for the city's part of the work on Sixth street bridge, the bids to be opened at noon, August 16th.

Upon motion of Mr. Worth, seconded by Mr. Parsley, the chairman was authorized to appoint a member of the commission each month to approve all bills before payment. Captain Belden appointed Mr. Worth to serve in this capacity until September 1st. The meeting adjourned at 6:15 P. M.

INEXPRESSIBLY SAD DEATH.

Mrs. William A. McGirt Passed Away Yesterday Morning.

Hundreds of friends in Wilmington and this section learned with infinite sorrow of the death of Mrs. Lillian Andrews McGirt, the beloved young wife of Mr. William Archibald McGirt, one of the city's most popular and prominent young business men, which occurred at her home, No. 213 Grace street, shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness of some days of typhoid fever, later developing gastritis. The grief-stricken husband, who refused to be consoled, and the parents of the young bride, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrews, have the tenderest sympathy of the entire community in their sore bereavement.

Had she lived until the 15th of September Mrs. McGirt would have been 20 years of age. On the 1st of June last she was happily united in marriage with Mr. McGirt, and left in the evening for a bridal tour. Soon after their return to Wilmington Mrs. McGirt was stricken with typhoid fever. Gastritis later developed, but on Thursday and even early yesterday morning her condition was so much improved that there was little doubt of her ultimate recovery. She was so much improved, in fact, that Mr. McGirt was persuaded to go to his work. Soon after he left her there was a decided change for the worse and the loved ones who tenderly watched over her during her illness realized that there was little hope. Messengers were dispatched for the young husband and soon after his arrival the winged messenger came and bore the sweet, gentle spirit to its eternal home. The announcement of her passing was a great shock to loved ones and friends who had hoped that within a few weeks she would be restored to health and strength again.

Mrs. McGirt was a young lady of attractive personality and charming manner and endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact. Her friends were limited only by her acquaintance. They are bowed down in grief over her untimely passing. She was a devout member of the Christian church.

Besides her husband, Mrs. McGirt is survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrews, three sisters, Misses Nina, Eunice and Pearl Andrews, and one brother, Mr. Hall Andrews. Miss Eunice Andrews has been ill of typhoid fever for some weeks, but her condition is thought to be improved. The heartfelt sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved. During the day and evening hundreds of friends called at the grief-stricken home to offer their condolences.

The funeral services will be held from the late residence at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. C. Wootten, who is supplying the pulpit of Grace Methodist church in the absence of Rev. Thos. A. Smoot, brother-in-law of Mr. McGirt, who is on a visit to the old country. The interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

Barcelona, July 22.—Antonia Maura, former Spanish premier, was wounded today by a would-be assassin. His assailant was arrested.

ALONE IN ROOM. KILLS SELF

Mr. Jacob Bornemann Dies From Pistol Shot Wound, Self-Inflicted, But Whether Intentional or Accidental Not Known.

Mr. Jacob Bornemann, 52 years old, well known in Wilmington, where he has been engaged in business for many years, died at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the James Walker Memorial Hospital, whither he was taken at 10 o'clock yesterday morning in a dying condition, as the result of a pistol shot wound in the mouth, inflicted some time during the night, but whether intentional or accidental is problematical and will never be known perhaps, as he was alone in his room at the time of the sad tragedy.

Attracted by agonizing groans which came from the home of Mr. Bornemann at Ninth and Wooster streets some colored people residing in the neighborhood early yesterday morning notified some of his relatives, who, arriving at the home shortly thereafter, broke down the door to the room of Mr. Bornemann and found him lying on his bed, with cover pulled around him, in a semi-conescious condition. The bedding was red with blood and there were clots of blood in his mouth, indicating that he had had hemorrhages. Dr. M. M. Caldwell was hurriedly summoned and reached Mr. Bornemann at 7:45 o'clock. The physician took in the situation at a glance, his trained eye telling him that death was only a matter of a few hours at most. At 10 o'clock the hospital ambulance was called and Mr. Bornemann was taken to the institution. When the hospital physicians went to lift Mr. Bornemann from his bed preparatory to taking him to the hospital they found a pistol lying on his right side near the tip of his fingers. One bullet had been fired, the other chambers being filled with cartridges.

Upon a closer examination at the hospital it was found that Mr. Bornemann had been fatally shot in the mouth with a pistol. The indications are that the barrel of the pistol was one and one-half inches in his mouth when the shot was fired, there being powder smoke in the mouth about this point. The tongue was split in twain. The bullet entered just inside the posterior pillar of the left tonsil and lodged about the cervical, severing several arteries and producing hemorrhages, and paralyzing his lower limbs and partially paralyzing his arms. The physicians are satisfied that the pistol was held in the right hand. Mr. Bornemann was asked by a hospital physician to state how he was shot and he faintly replied that he was fooling with a pistol and that it went off. Mr. Bornemann had been in ill-health for some time and was subject to severe attacks of kidney trouble, suffering one only last Saturday.

Attacks of kidney colic such as Mr. Bornemann was subject to, are said by physicians to be terrific and one in such condition is likely to turn to anything to seek relief. Mr. Bornemann was a man of strong mentality and those who know him say that if he shot himself with suicidal intent that it was under some such great strain.

Members of the family have denied that Mr. Bornemann was shot at all and say that he died from natural causes, and the statement above given is that of physicians whom they called to attend him.

Coroner C. D. Bell was notified yesterday afternoon of the death of Mr. Bornemann and he immediately called at the hospital and was informed by one of the physicians that Mr. Bornemann's death was caused from a pistol shot wound in the mouth, but that it was such a plain case of suicide or accidental shooting that it was not thought necessary to call the coroner and have an investigation made.

Mr. Bornemann had been in ill health for about a year, having suffered the first severe attack of kidney trouble about 12 months ago. He has been able, however, to attend his duties in his grocery store at Ninth and Wooster streets. Saturday he suffered a second attack of the same trouble and was confined to his room until Wednesday, when he was able to return to his store. Thursday afternoon he complained to his nephew that he had fever. Mr. Bornemann was in business here about 20 years ago, and then moved to New York, where he resided for ten years, returning to Wilmington five or six years ago. He opened a grocery business at corner of Eighth and Wooster but owing to ill health disposed of his interest, and later, when his health seemed to improve, opened a grocery store at Ninth and Wooster.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Bornemann, and two sons, Messrs. Fred and Charlie Bornemann, who have been making their home in New York. He is also survived by three brothers, Justice G. W. Bornemann, Mr. J. H. Bornemann, of Wilmington; Mr. J. D. Bornemann, of New York, and one sister, Mrs. H. Gerdes, of Wilmington, all of whom have the sympathy of a great many friends in their deep sorrow.

The funeral services will be held from the residence of Mr. J. H. Bornemann, No. 618 Orange street, at 10 o'clock this morning, conducted by Rev. W. A. Snyder, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church. The interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

Funeral of Miss Burruss.

In the presence of a large number of sorrowing friends and relatives, impressive funeral services were conducted at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the First Presbyterian Church over the remains of Miss Elizabeth Burruss whose sad death so shocked the community on Thursday evening. The services, in the absence of the pastor, were by Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. Wm. E. Hill, of Radford, Va. The pallbearers were Dr. E. J. Wood, Messrs. A. B. Skelding, J. Ross McNeal, Raymond Hunt, Van R. C. King, Platt W. Davis, R. A. Williams and Milton Calder.

INSURANCE MEN AT BEACH

Members of $100,000 Club of Security and Annuity Company at Seashore Hotel for Their Annual Outing.

Gathered at Wrightsville Beach for an outing of several days are the members of the $100,000 Club of the Security Life and Annuity Company, of Greensboro, the pioneer life insurance company of the Old North State, and which now ranks with the leading insurance companies of the country. Insurance men are present from four States, and in addition to time given over to pleasure, the club held a most interesting session yesterday when prizes were awarded to winners of contests and instructive talks made by some of the head officers of the company. The members of the club are guests of the company and are stopping at the Seashore Hotel.

The club met at 11 o'clock yesterday morning in the assembly hall of the Seashore Hotel and was called to order by Mr. C. C. Taylor, of Greensboro, manager of agencies for the company, with Mr. G. A. Rankin, of Macon, Ga., secretary.

What was perhaps the most pleasing incident of the meeting on the part of the officers of the company was the presentation by Mr. Peter P. Yates, of Greensboro, on behalf of the agents present, of $179,000 in applications. This was only a part of the business recently written by the hustling insurance men gathered at the beach for thus far during the month of July $600,000 in applications have been written.

Mr. C. C. Taylor made a most interesting and instructive address on "Agency Development," and had the close attention of the entire force. He was followed by Mr. George A. Grimsley, secretary of the company, who had as his subject, "Relation of the Company and the Agent." He declared that it was just as necessary for the agency force to be imbued with the idea of building a great, strong, just company as it was for the home office management.

C. C. TAYLOR,

Manager of Agencies of the Security Life and Annuity Company.

It must be remembered, he said, that, in the true sense, the policy holders are the company, and that the management and agents are the servants of the policy holders. There is no conflict of interest unless some policy holder, through some false conception, seeks to get more than his share, or unless someone seeks to become or does become a policy holder through fraud. Of course, it is the solemn duty of the management of protect all policy holders against fraudulent designs of any policy holder.

Mr. Grimsley said that agents should sell their business straight so that there could be no misunderstanding on the part of the policy holder as to the kind of policy and the benefits therein; that if insurance was sold right the agents would be well armed for any contest.

He said it was a great pleasure for him to know that the majority of the agents present had been with the company since the first year of its organization and that what had been said about ideals had simply been a relation of the story of these agents' connection with the growth of the Security Life and Annuity Company. Let us remember, he concluded, that we are the servants of our policy holders and that their interest is our interest.

In a statement as to the present condition of the company, Mr. Taylor said that the assets now amounted to more than $1,000,000, with over $12,-

GEORGE A. GRIMSLEY,

Secretary of the Security Life and Annuity Company.

500,000 on paid for basis, and with a premium income of more han $500,000 annually. The surplus to policy holders, he said, amounted to $156,000, and that during the past six months their books showed a saving of $98,000 over and above all disbursements.

At the session yesterday morning the members of the club first learned who had been the successful contestants for different prizes offered by the company, one class of prizes being for paid for business and the other for applications secured, the period being from March 1st to July 1st. The prizes were presented by Mr. George A. Grimsley to the following agents: J. L. Wimbish, of Winston-Salem, first prize of $50 for largest amount of paid for business during the contest; W. D. Frierson, of Sumter, S. C., second prize, $25, for second largest amount of paid for business; W. D. Frierson, of Sumter, S. C., first prize for largest number of applications secured; W. W. Solomon, of Macon, Ga second prize for second largest number of applications secured.

Messrs. J. M. Dunwoody, of Macon, Ga., and M. M. Murchison, of Winston-Salem, were unable to be present on account of sickness, and resolutions were adopted instructing Mr. Taylor to wire them the sincere regrets of the club at their inability to participate in their outing on the seashore.

This morning another session will be held waen talks will be made by W. B. Opshur, general agent at Sumter; W. W. Solomon, of Macon; R. P. Ketcum, of Cordele, and other agents.

Following representatives of the Security Life and Annuity Company are in attendance: J. N. Still, Winston-Salem; C. D. Laundon, of Macon, Ga.; E. G. Hill, of Dawson, Ga.; R. C. Hausey, of Macon, Ga.; G. H. Dortsch, of Raleigh; W. E. Sloan, Statesville; F. E. Sloan, Raleigh; B. A. Kluttz, Raleigh; R. P. Ketchum, Cordele, Ga.; D. C. Ketchum, Cordele, Ga.; A. H. Potter, Emporia, Va.; J. L. Wimbish, Winston-Salem; W. D. Frierson, Sumter; J. C. Massey, Kershaw, S. C.; H. V. Frierson, Sumter; L. R. Trueluck, Lake City, S. C.; W. W. Solomon, Macon; Maj. John B. Neal, Scotland Neck; W. B. Upshur, Sumter; R. G. Lea, Greensboro; J. P. McMichael, Madison; G. A. Rankin, Macon; Peter P. Yates, Greensboro.

FUNERAL OF MR. WALTON.

Services Held From the Late Residence Yesterday Afternoon.

The funeral of Mr. John C. Walton, whose death occurred early Wednesday morning, was held at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the late residence, corner Seventh and Castle streets, conducted by Rev. C. H. Sweet, pastor of the Fourth Street Advent Christian Church, of which the deceased was a member. There were present many friends and relatives and members of Cherokee Tribe, No. 9, with which Mr. Walton was affiliated, attended in a body. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Honorary, Messrs. R. P. McClammy and James M. Hall; active, A. J. Burriss, A. T. Parker, E. Todd, V. Gaskill, J. B Fales and J. H. Costin.

Steamer Lyon Monday.

On account of the special term of Bladen Superior Court which will convene at Elizabethtown, the steamer Lyon will leave Wilmington Monday evening at 6 o'clock sharp instead of Tuesday afternoon as usual. This change is for the benefit of a large number of witnesses from Brunswick county who will attend Bladen Superior Court as witnesses in the cases of Brady and others charged with offences growing out of the Green Swamp land suits, which cases were transferred to Bladen at the last term of Brunswick Superior Court at Southport. It is probable that most of the witnesses will go up on the steamer Lyon Monday evening for the trial.

Rev. H. H. Hulten, D. D., Here.

Rev. H. H. Hulten, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church of Charlotte, as previously noted, will supply the pulpit of the First Baptist church, of this city, the next four Sundays, beginning tomorrow, during Dr. Foster's vacation. Dr. Hulten has already arrived and is a guest at the Hotel Tarymoore, Wrightsville Beach. Dr. Hulten will be heard by large congregations, he having won a warm place in the hearts of the people by his eloquent and powerful sermons delivered in the church here in April.

Two Steamers Bound Here.

The British steamers Hillbrook from Rotterdam and the Reliance from Hamburg, with fertilizer constituents are bound to this port. Both are of over 2,000 tons net register and are expected within the next two weeks. The Madeleine Rickmers, which was put down for this port, and was reported disabled shortly after leaving Bremen, has arrived at Savannah, Ga., where she discharged her cargo.

Dr. and Mrs. Willingham Bereaved.

Many friends of Dr. and Mrs. B. J. Willingham here and elsewhere will tenderly sympathize with them in the death of their infant daughter, which occurred last night at 10:30 o'clock after a short but very acute illness. The funeral will be conducted this afternoon at 5 o'clock from the family home in this city, No. 401 Chesnut street, and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

EVEN CURES ULCERS.

Remarkable Results from Skin Remedy That Costs Almost Nothing.

No matter how bad a sore or ulcer afflicts you, it is said that Hokara the pure skin food, will cure it. In fact, if it doesn't cure, the purchase price will be refunded.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., the local agents for Hokara, who have sold hundreds of packages the last few weeks, say they have yet to find any form of wound or disease affecting the skin that Hokara does not heal, and its relief is so instantaneous that those who try it are simply delighted with it.

Pimples, eczema, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, and all skin troubles are quickly cured by applying this simple skin food and tissue builder. It contains no grease or acids, and is cleanly to use.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. is selling Hokara at the low price of 25c for a liberal sized jar.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

MRS. JENNIE B. CLOWE DEAD.

Passed Away at Wrightsville Beach After Brief Illness.

Many relatives and friends in this city and elsewhere will learn with sincere regret of the death of Mrs. Jennie B. Clowe, the beloved wife of Mr. W. H. Clowe, captain of the Atlanta, Ga., Fire Department, which occurred at Tarrymoore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, at 3:50 o'clock yesterday afternoon after a brief illness. With her when the end came were her husband and sister-in-law, Mrs. Lilly Clowe, of Wilmington. Mrs. Clowe became desperately ill Monday evening, just after finishing a hearty supper, including fish and ice cream, and physicians were immediately called. Despite their efforts and the ministrations of loved ones, Mrs. Clowe grew gradually worse until the end came at the hour mentioned. She grew alarmingly worse on Wednesday and the physicians held out little or no hope for her recovery. Whether she died of ptomaine poison, or some other trouble, as one of the attending physicians was inclined to believe, could not be ascertained last night.

Mrs. Clowe was in the 56th year of her age and is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. D. M. Therrell and Mrs. J. Emmette Collier, both of Atlanta, Ga., and other relatives, among whom are Mr. Harry Clowe, a nephew; Mrs. Lilly Clowe, sister-in-law, and Mrs. Hannah Clowe, all of this city. The bereaved have the tenderest sympathy of a great many friends in Wilmington in this trying hour. Mrs. Clowe was a most estimable woman and was greatly admired and beloved by all within her wide circle of acquaintance. She was a devout member of Park Street Methodist Church, West End, Atlanta, Ga., and took an active part in the affairs of the church.

Accompanied by her husband Mrs. Clowe arrived last Friday from Atlanta, Ga., to spend a week or ten days at Wrightsville Beach and had expected to return tomorrow.

The body was brought to the city last night and taken to the funeral parlors of Mr. James F. Woolvin, on Princess street, and prepared for burial. Accompanied by the grief-stricken husband, the body will be taken on the afternoon Seaboard train today to Atlanta, Ga., where the funeral and interment will take place some time tomorrow or Monday.

MR. W. T. WATKINS PASSES

Died Yesterday Morning After Lingering Illness—Funeral.

After an illness extending over a period of several months, Mr. William Taylor Watkins, a well know and higally esteemed citizen, passed away yesterday morning at his residence, No. 425 South Fourth street. Announcement of his passing was received with genuine regret by many friends. He was a victim of the dread disease tuberculosis and after the malady had fastened itself upon him rapid inroads were made upon his strength and vitality. For some weeks his condition was regarded as serious and it was realized that it was only a matter of a short time before dissolution would come. However, the realization of his passing brought sorrow to many hearts.

Mr. Watkins was the son of the late Mr. Bunyan Watkins and of Mrs. F. L. Porter, of this city, who married a second time after the death of Mr. Watkins' father. He was born in Wilmington and was 39 years, four months and 12 days old. He spent his his entire life in this city. A man of clever and genial personality he possessed the envious faculty of making and holding friends with whomever he came in contact. He was a cabinet maker and was an expert in his chosen line of work.

Mr. Watkins is survived by his mother, two sisters, Mrs. W. M. Andrews, of Moncure N. C., and Mrs. Caldwell Thally, of Wilmington, who have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement. Mr. Watkins was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The funeral services will be conducted from the late residenc at 5 o'clock this afternoon by Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of St. Andrew's Church, and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

Those Pies of Boyhood.

How delicious were the pies of boyhood. No pies now ever taste so good, what's changed? The pies? No. It's you. You've lost the strong, healthy stomach, the vigorous liver, the active kidneys, the regular bowels of boyhood. Your digestion is poor and you blame the food. What's needed? A complete toning up by Electric Bitters of all organs of digestion—Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bowels—Try them. They'll restore your boyhood appetite and appreciation of food and fairly saturate your body with new health, strength and vigor. 50c at Robert R. Bellamy's.

Miss Mary Thompson was the hostess at an elegant but informal reception given last night at her home on North Fourth street in honor of her attractive guest, Miss Ethel Boone, of Fayetteville. It was the occasion of Miss Boone's birthday, and the company of young people who were invited were charmed with the manner in which their gifted hostesses entertained them, and it was nearing the midnight hour ere they realized that the departing hour had come. Miss Boone will spend some time here, and the many friends she has won during the short time she has been here will hope that she may spend the entire Summer in Wilmington.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Miss Lizzie S. Branch, who has been visiting friends and relatives at Greensboro, N. C., returned to the city last evening, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Benj. Brothers, of Liberty, N. C.

—Mr. P. S. Cooper, president of the First National Bank of Dunn, N. C., and a leading business man of that town, is spending a brief visit with his brothers, Messrs. Thos. E. and W. B. Cooper, of this city.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The Yoke Fellows' of the Y. M. C. A. will hold their regular meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

—General Secretary Edwin Kettle, of the Y. M. C. A., will preach at Wrightsboro Baptist Church Sunday night.

—The Boys' Bible Class of the Y. M. C. A. will meet in the rooms of the association at 10 o'clock this morning for a study of the life of "David."

—Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock Mr. J. B. Huntington, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., and Mr. H. E. O'Keef, will hold services at the country home.

—The schooner Wm. Thomas Moore, Capt. Griffith, cleared yesterday for Little River, S. C., where she will receive cargo of lumber from the Hammer Lumber Company.

—The tug Sea King, Capt. Edgar Williams, arrived in port late Thursday night from Brunswick, Ga., where the tug was thoroughly overhauled and placed in readiness for the Fall and Winter season.

—Bids for the erection of the brick annex to the Wilmington High School building were not opened yesterday at noon, in accordance with advertisement, being postponed until Monday night at 9 o'clock. Mr. J. A. Taylor is chairman of the building committee.

—The Recorder's court yesterday morning was of short duration. Substitute Recorder Harriss presided. The only case of interest on the docket for trial, the one against Walter Guion, colored, charged with carrying concealed weapons and disorderly conduct, was continued until today.

—"The Miner's Sweetheart" and "The Padre's Secret" are the titles of the feature pictures that will be shown at the Bijou today. The former is an interesting story simply told but the grip upon the interest is never relaxed. No detail has been omitted that will serve to increase the realism and the acting value is even higher while the photography is of the best and clearest. The latter is also a clever story and will hold the interest of all.

STRUCK BY FREIGHT CAR

Drunken Colored Man Struck by Freight Car on Suburban Line.

A drunken colored man whose name could not be learned was struck by the freight car on the beach line of the Tidewater Power Co., at or near Macomber's station, last night about 11 o'clock. Motorman Ed Allen was in charge of the car and after the man had been struck, he was picked up and brought to the shed of the company in this city where Dr. Joseph Akerman examined him and found that he was probably suffering more from the stupidity of an over-grown drunk than from his injuries. He was sent to his home from the car barns at an early hour this morning and is expected to recover in a day or two.

Was in a Fighting Mood.

Christian Peterson, a white man, about 40 years old, who lives near the Hilton Lumber Company, is in the city prison with a bandaged head as the result of his desire to fight everything and everybody who came within his reach while in an intoxicated condition at his home late yesterday afternoon. Shortly before 7 o'clock a telephone message was received at police headquarters to the effect that Peterson was beating his wife and requesting that an officer be sent to arrest him. Officer Frank George was dispatched to the scene. Peterson was still in a fighting mood and he made for the officer, who was forced to club him. Peterson was sent to the hospital, where his wounds were dressed, and was then brought back to police headquarters. He will answer to the Recorder's court this morning to charges of disorderly conduct and resisting an officer.

MEET AT TARRYMOORE HOTEL.

Annual State Convention of Junior Order, U. A. M., in August.

The State convention of the Junior Order, United American Mechanics, which meets July 23rd to 26th, will be held at Tarrymoore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, Messrs. H. F. Farrow and E. C. Woobury, members of the hotel and hall committee from the joint committee of the local councils, having made arrangements to this effect last night with the management of the popular hostelry. It is estimated that there will be between 400 and 500 visitors at the beach for the convention which will consider some matters of vital importance to the members of the order in this State. The two local councils have appointed committees who are now at work on a programme of entertainment for the visitors and which is expected to be announced in a short time.

DR. KILGO CANNOT COME.

Unable to Fill Pulpit at Grace Methodist Church Sunday Night.

A telegram was received in the city yesterday from Bishop J. C. Kilgo in which he stated with regret his inability to accept the invitation to fill the pulpit at Grace Methodist church Sunday night. This information will be received with genuine regret for it was hoped that the Bishop would be able to accept. He will arrive at Burgaw today and tomorrow morning will preach the dedicatory sermon of the new Methodist Church there. It was hoped to have him come to Wilmington in the afternoon and occupy Grace pulpit at night, but he finds it will be impossible to prolong his stay in this section.

COTTON CHIEF EXPORT

Marked Reduction of Grains and Meats During Past Years.

Washington, July 22.—Cotton, copper, Illuminating oil, wheat—these articles in the order named formed the most complete articles exported from the United States during the fiscal year just closed. The value of the cotton exported was $450,000,000 of the copper $83,500,000; of the illuminating oil, $62,000,000, and of the wheat $47,000,000.

Other articles of export ranked in value as follows: Flour, lard, tobacco, lumber, upper leather, corn, bituminous coal and lubricating oil. In nearly all of the articles of natural production there was a marked decline in the exports of 1910 as compared with previous years, while in certain manufactures the figures for the year are larger than for any previous year and the total for all manufactures probably will exceed that of any earlier year.

The bureau of statistics, which has given out these figures, has not yet completed the total value of the manufactures exported.

The falling off is most marked in corn, wheat, flour and meats, wheat falling from $161,000,000 in 1892, the high year, to $47,000,000 in 1910; corn from $85,000,000 in 1900 to $25,500,000 in 1910; flour from $75,000,000 in 1893, to $46,50,000 in 1910; lard from $69,000,000 in 1906 to $43,000,000 in 1910; bacon from $46,000,000 in 1898 to $18,500,000 in 1910; fresh beef from $32,000,000 in 1901 to $7,750,000 in 1910, and cattle from $42,000,000 in 1904 to $12,000,000 last year.

A CRIPPEN SUSPECT

Albert C. Rickward Arrested in Chicago—Is From London.

Chicago, July 22.—Albert C. Rickward, 29 years old of London, was taken into custody by city detectives late today as a suspect in the Dr. Crippen murder case. Despite the difference of nearly 20 years in the ages of Rickward and Dr. Crippen the detectives took their "suspect" to the city hall, searched him and later examined his luggage at the Lake Shore station.

Rickward had $2,000 in English negotiable paper on his person and this apparently added to his troubles as the detectives insisted in knowing all about it. Rickward was greatly incensed at his detention and for a time refused to answer any questions. He was released within a few hours after he had been arrested.

TWO PARDONS GRANTED.

Union County Men Get Benefit of Executive Clemency.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 22.—Gov. Kitchin pardons W. S. Bell, of Union county from a four years' sentence to the penitentiary after two years' service on the ground that the judge now says he had much doubt as to the intent of the prisoner to commit the embezzlement of which he was convicted. He was a sewing machine agent.

Another pardon is for Laney W. Baker, Union county, serving 30 months in the State's prison for betrayal under promise of marriage. That the prisoner has already been sufficiently punished is the view taken by the Governor and prosecutors. He has served 22 months.

DIAMOND WORTH $150,000

Dealer Says the Gem Will be Worth $20,000 When Cut.

New York, July 22.—A fine white diamond weighing 191 carats and worth $150,000 uncut is the latest find at the Premier mine in South Africa according to advices which reached Maiden Lane dealers this week.

The stone is described as absolutely flawless, measuring two inches long by about three-fourths of an inch thick. It tapers in breadth from 1 1-4 inches to 3-4 inche.

A Maiden Lane expert said that judging from the description of the uncut stone, the large perfect diamond that could be cut from it would be pear-shaped. The finished stone will probably rank among the world's famous gems. When cut the diamond should be worth at least $200,000.

NORFOLK MAN DROWNED.

Accidentally Fell From Launch—Details of Accident.

Norfolk, Va., July 22.—Percy W. Williams, one of the most popular young business men in Norfolk, was drowned tonight in the Hague, a branch of Smith Creek by accidentally falling from his launch on which he was working at the time.

The accident happened at 8 o'clock and the body was recovered three hours later. It is believed that Williams, who was just thirty-two years old was taken with cramps and fell overboard.

mittee was composed of D. W. Galloway, R. G. Taylor, L. W. Wood, T. F. Stanley and J. K. Nicholson.

In assuming the permanent chairmanship, Mr. Bellamy made a vigorous speech denouncing the tactics of the opposition and bidding them defiance, declaring that the convention represented a majority of the district. He charged that the other convention had been stormed by an army of "blue coats" and had been usurped by the other side but he promised that whoever was nominated would roll up a big victory in November and that every nook of the district would be invaded for him. Mr. Bellamy's remarks were cheered almost to the echo. Nominations having been declared in order, Harnett was the only county forthcoming with a candidate and Mr. Godwin was placed before the convention by Mr. Clifford, who paid his candidate a high tribute and charged that the opposition had attempted to throttle the will of the people. He predicted that Godwin would clean he field with any two of the candidates that would be pitted against him. The name of "Godwin" was one to conjure with in that convention and Mr. Clifford was cheered enthusiastically. J. R. Baggett, of Harnett, seconded the nomination in an eloquent and beautiful tribute to Mr. Godwin and the severest condemnation of the opposition. He said that the convention had been stormed by a battalion of blue coats "called out by the chief of the fire department." The first ballot was then called and resulted as follows: Godwin 134.56, McKinnon 16.11, McClammy 31.43, Cook 34.50, Clark 39.36, Brown .10. Chairman Bellamy declared Hannibal L. Godwin, of Harnett, the nominee of the "regular Democratic Convention of the Sixth Congressional District."

On motion the chairman named a committee composed of J. H. Sykes, of New Hanover, Geo. B. McLeod, of Robeson; R. S. Newton, of Bladen; L. V. Grady, of Columbus, and J. R. Baggett, of Harnett, to escort the nominee into the hall and he soon appeared, being received with tumultuous applause. He accepted the nomination with thanks and declared that he was backed by the great middle class, the farmer and the workingman. He paid high tribute to the tillers of the soil and closed in the midst of the wildest enthusiasm.

Following the nomination, the Congressional Executive Committee for the district was named as follows: J. B. Mercer, of New Hanover; Geo. H. Bellamy, of Brunswick; J. R. Williamson, of Columbus; John C. Adams, of Cumberland; R. G. Taylor, of Harnett, and Geo. B. McLeod, of Robeson. Mr. Bellamy was selected as chairman. The usual resolutions of thanks were adopted and an appeal was made to the State committee to adopt the direct primary system as opposed to the present plan of organization which has proved so unsatisfactory. The convention then at 12:40 P. M., adjourned sine die.

Notes of the Convention.

The lightning-like, yet frictionless manner in which the convention was transformed from virtually a howling mob to an orderly assembly about 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening was one of the marvels of the gathering. After the coup d'etat that transpired during the recess, ex-Mayor Wm E. Springer, of Wilmington, with a nerve that was a subject of remark all over the hall, ascended the improvised platform immediately in front of the deposed chairman and calmly announced that he had arrived to stay; that as chairman of the District Executive Committee by virtue of his election during the recess, he was the chairman of the convention until a permanent organization was effected. Then after the committees were named and a recess had been taken, Maj. Terry Lyon and the "Militant Chairman" calmly held forth quietly, immobile while the tempest surged about them. Half a dozen delegates of contending factions immediately in front of the stand attempted to engage in a wholesale fisticuff while friends labored to quiet them. The chairman and secretary were absolutely unmoved and gazed down with stoic indifference. In the meantime Mayor Thos. H. Wright, of Wrightsville Beach, sent up to the city for a detail of police and Chief Williams and four of his best officers were soon on the scene, sworn in as officers of Wrightsville Beach and in the hall. The chairman then ruled that the delegations must retire to their respective places and ordered the police to do their duty. In a trice the floor was cleared and the convention a moment afterwards presented the scene of a session of the International Peace Society. It was quick, effective work, the work of a master hand and elicited the admiration of everyone.

A delegate from the rural district strolled in the convention hall a few minutes late for the afternoon session and as his eyes swept the sea of faces and fixed themselves on the new presiding officer, he touched the elbow of a fellow delegate and asked who was in the chair.

"A man by the name of Springer, from New Hanover," he was told.

"How's that?" he inquired.

"Well, you see," said his friend, "when we took a recess a while ago for dinner, the 'deestrict' executive committee met and 'decomposed' George Bellamy, and now Springer from New Hanover is chairman!"

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty" and no man was on the job more constantly than John W. Bolton, of Cumberland. It was he who made such a strenuous protest at the opening of the convention against the motion of J. C. Clifford that Cumberland be declared without representation on the floor of the convention, which motion brought on all the trouble at the outset. After the convention was all over and the Godwin forces came into the hall for the "insurgent" gathering at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, many of the "regular" delegates remained in the hall to see the fun. After Chairman Geo. H. Bellamy had called the recalcitrants to order, it was Mr. Bolton who first addressed the chair. "Mistah Cha-a-irman!" he screamed. "I desire to know if Cumberland has representation in this 'rump' convention!" And it was some time before the police, still on duty, for the 'progressives' as well as 'regulars,' could restore quiet from the laughter which ensued.

On the fringe of the crowd were the ever alert "our friends, the enemy." It is entirely unnecessary to say that they were supremely gratified at the turn affairs were taking. Some could even detect in the maneuverings of some of the Democratic delegations, the fine Italian hand of more than one who have not always been "regular" and some who have actually taken pride in their Republicanism.

The enthusiasm for Clark which finally resulted in his nomination set in about 1 o'clock when the Bladen man's stock went to something over 70. J. R. Maxwell, of Whiteville, and another enthusiastic admirer of Mr. Clark brought forth a huge, snow white banner on which was painted an excellent likeness of their favorite son" with the words "McKay in 1809, Oscar L. Clark in 1910." The delegates turned to the banner and cheered as the bearers waltzed entirely around Lumina with their campaign slogan.

The arrangements at Lumina were par excellence and nothing was left to be desired in street car service. General Manager Skelding, of the Tidewater Power Co., and the local committee of arrangements with Mr. L. B. Rogers chairman, planned everything well and the convention was a great success. The Western Union had trouble with its wire on the floor of the convention at first, but when things began to happen, when the real need of outside communication was in evidence the Western Union was right there with the goods, to use a trite expression. Mr. A. B. Robinson, an expert at the key, a veteran operator at these conventions, was in charge of the sub-office and every message was handled without a moment's delay.

The speech of Hon. O. L. Clark accepting the nomination was sincere, eloquent and bore on its wings the manner of man that Oscar L. Clark is—clean, straightforward and one upon whom all faction may unite. If anybody thought that "Sandy McKinnon," of Robeson, bore any regrets, he certainly didn't show it at the convention. With that broad, frank, open smile, characteristic of the Scotch, he assured the convention that it has most certainly nominated "the second best man." He paid high tribute to his personal friend, Oscar L. Clark, and pledged him his loyal, active and whole-souled support.

"If McClammy had made his speech before the convention, he would have been nominated," said one of the up-county delegates in speaking of Mr. McClammy's graceful address to the convention after Mr. Clark's nomination. He spoke without the slightest tinge of disappointment and with that customary vigor and eloquence that have placed him in the forefront of the New Hanover bar. He pledged his most earnest support of the nominee and to the Democratic party in the cradle of which he was born, being the son of the lamented Maj. C. W. McClammy of sainted memory.

Temporary Chairman Geo. H. Bellamy was as firm as the Rock of Gibraltar in his ruling as to Cumberland's having no representation on the floor of the convention and he steadfastly refused to be moved in spite of appeals and implorations. Some of the best parliamentarians besought him for a change, but he ruled with an iron hand. Such men as Maj. E. J. Hale, member of the State Committee; ex-Congressman John G. Shaw, of Cumberland; ex-Congressman John D. Bellamy, of New Hanover; ex-Congressman Gilbert P. Patterson, of Maxton and Col. Neal Archie McLean, of Lumberton, were absolutely powerless to make the Duke of Brunswick yield one iota in his ruling.

The speech of Col. McLean, of Lumberton, nominating Maj. McKinnon was a gem. Col. McLean spoke with that ease and eloquence of diction that have made him the premier convention speaker in the Sixth District. It was witty, eloquent and pleading—oil upon the waters, so to speak, but which unfortunately did not avail in the turmoil and strife.

Y. M. C. A. EMBLEM

Has Been Received by Local Association—Its Significance.

General Secretary Edwin Kettle, of the Y. M. C. A., has just received a beautiful cut in color of the association emblem. This has been framed and placed on the wall of the lobby. Many of the members have asked for an explanation of the emblem and Mr. Kettle has furnished the press with the following for the benefit of all who are interested:

The circle, symbol of eternity, inside the circle the first two Greek letters in the name of Christ, representing Christ. Resting upon it is a triangle, symbol of humanity; upon that is the open Bible, showing the passage John 17, 21: "That they all may be one; as Thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me." Eternity, Christ, Humanity, the Word of the living God.

The triangle represents the three fold nature of man, the kind of work the Y. M. C. A. is trying to do; on the three sides are the words, Body, Mind, Spirit. It ministers to the body through its physical department, to the mind through its educational department, and to the spirit through its religious department.

VISIBLE SUPPLY OF COTTON.

Hester's Statement Shows 1,916,720 Bales for Past Week.

New Orleans, July 22.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton issued today shows the total visible to be 1,966,729 against 2,100,209 last week and 2,625,458 last year. Of this the total of American cotton is 1,037,720 against 1,134,217 last week, and 1,974,458 last year and of all other kinds including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 929,000 against 966,000 last week and 651,000 last year.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and continental Europe 1,000,000 against 1,810,000 last year; in Egypt 62,000 against 85,000 last year; in India 590,00 against 318,000 last year, and in the United States 315,000 against 421,000.

NATURE'S WARNING

Wilmington People Must Recognize and Heed It.

Kidney ills come quietly—mysteriously.

But nature always warns you.

Notice the kidney secretions.

See if the color is unhealthy—

If there are settlings and sediment,

Passages frequent, scanty, painful.

It's time then to use Doan's Kidney Pills.

To ward off Bright's disease or diabetes.

Doan's have done great work in Wilmington.

William L. Benson, 618 S. Second St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Robert R. Bellamy's Drug Store, did me more good than any other remedy I ever used. My back ached all the time and I could not stoop or lift without sharp pains through my body. Mornings my back was so lame and sore that it was hard for me to get out of bed. The kidney secretions were highly colored and contained sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the pains in my back and regulated the passages of the kidney secretions. I have such great confidence in this remedy that I advise its use to anyone suffering from kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

THE COTTON MARKET RALLIED

Closed Steady After a Nervous and Irregular Day—Opening Was Barely Steady With Small Decline—Cables.

New York, July 22—The cotton market was nervous and irregular today, but after an early decline prices gradually rallied and the close was very steady, at a decline of from 4 to 7 points on the old crop, but net unchanged to 3 points higher on later positions.

The opening was barely steady at a decline of 2 points on July but 7 to 12 points lower on the general list as a result of scattering liquidation and bear pressure, which appeared to be encouraged by the comparatively weak cables, continued talk of a possible short time movement in Lancashire mills during August, better weather reports and a feeling that unfavorable grain crop prospects would operate against any in general trade this Autumn. There may also have been some idea that the circulation of July notices estimated at between 30,000 and 40,000 bales, might cause weakness, but when it was found that the July bulls were taking up the cotton, and that the improvement in Eastern weather belt was not encouraging, much aggressive selling the market firmed up on covering and trade buying. After rallying to about the closing prices of last night, it weakened again to nearly the opening figures under Wall Street selling and liquidation based on the weakness of the stock market, but influenced by the bullish visible supply statement turned firmer again late in the day on renewed covering and closed within a point or so of the top on all positions except July, which after selling at 16 cents, closed at 15.93 bid.

Late cables from Liverpool claimed that there would be no organized short time among the English mills. So far this morning 7,879 bales of cotton have been received here from Liverpool for contract delivery and about 10,000 bales are expected between now and the end of the month. Northern mills hav shipped 5,411 bales here for delivery, considerable cotton is on the way here from the South and it is said that the efforts to get cotton here in time for July delivery are responsible for the slightly heavier into-sight figures for the week. The figures of spinners takings included 7,000 bales in transit from Liverpool, and 25,000 bales from the South for New York delivery.

Receipts at the ports today 7,439 bales against 8,987 last week and 2,856 last year; for the week 60,000 bales against 37,541 last week and 18,571 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 508 bales against 651 last year and at Houston 19 bales against 270 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 16.00; middling gulf 16.25; sales 11,000 bales. Futures opened barely steady and closed very steady.

COTTON TRADE BEARISH.

Condition of the Cotton Market Yesterday—Crops Are Good.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, July 22.—While the quotations from abroad were poor, private cables told of a large short interest and probable higher prices; but the latter were unheeded and prices opened well off and with little animation. Constant vigilance by the bull leaders was shown, but the trade is inclined to be bearish in spite of their bold front, and specially so regarding the new positions, the weather conditions as a whole being excellent.

The large amount of cotton coming here was evidently expected and fails to dislodge the holders. For the moment there is a decided abatement of poor crop reports.

The certificated stock gained 28,000 bales for the week, and is now 116,000 bales. The market showed more strength toward the close, but trading was light.

BEAR PARTY RULED STOCKS

No Much Molested Its Operations on the Market Yesterday—Continual Decline in Prices—The National Lead Incident.

New York, July 22.—The bear party was not much molested in its operations in stocks today. The decline in prices encountered little effective resistance in the form of buying orders except such as the bears themselves supplied when they covered shorts from time to time. At other times the buying consisted simply in acceptances at concessions and the concessions were made rapidly for the most part. Operations were congested largely in a few of the speculative stocks, but the price concessions applied to the whole list, active and inactive. Bear covering caused the sharp recovery late in the day.

The cut in the National Lead dividend was the ostensible motive for disturbance in speculation which overcame the market. The showing made by the National banks in the compilation of returns to the Controller and the fears of a poor quarterly statement by the United States Steel Corporation at next Tuesday's meeting of directors were cited as possible further grounds for the tone of the market. The National Lead incident itself was much more influential for the inferences drawn from it than for the importance of the action itself.

The personality of the capitalists credited with the control of the company, however, made the action influential as a pissible index of financial and speculative policy.

The consideration of the condition of the National banks of the country was more limited to bankers, but may not have lacked influence on the stock market for that reason. The nominal decrease in loans since March reported on June 30th when considered in connection with the greater loan contraction by the New York banks for the same period, is no decrease at all but an increase of over $28,000,000 outside New York. In the same way, the increase in loans of $394,276,000 in the yearly comparison has to take account of the New York decrease for the same time included in the total, which indicates that outside of New York there has been a credit expansion of $476,422,000 in a year's time. The gain in percentage of legal reserve in three months amounts to one one-hundredth of one per cent., and for the year there has been a decrease of 1.15 per cent. The percentage to deposits of cash on hand, redemption fund and due from reserve agents stands at only 24.44 per cent., a decrease in three months of 80 per cent. and in a year of 2.52 per cent. The last item is affected by the heavy decrease of $83,102,900 for three months in the item of due from other banks and reserve agents, showing how the interior banks have been drawing down their balances from the reserve centers. Their future power to draw is correspondingly impaired and will thow on the reserve centers the demand for credit to remove the crops. The prevailing note of warning in the banking world was amply explained by this showing, and also the active preparations to strengthen the reserve condition of the banks. In pursuance of this object, there has been another heavy inflow of cash to New York this week by receipts from outside points, including gold exports and by disbursements from the sub-treasury. Estimates of the week's total gain ran to nearly 20,000,000.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $1,233,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Total sales of stocks today were 742,300 shares.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, July 22.—King Corn today on the board of trade swayed all prices for cereals down, not up. Unexpected rains in Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, and Illinois forced many of yesterday's buyers to sell out in a hurry. So radical was the change in the outlook that this afternoon predictions were current another such rain within ten days would make the corn crop a bumper. The tone was weak in every pit at the close. Net losses in grain were: Corn 1c to 2 1-2c, wheat 1-2 to 1 1-4 to 1 3-8; oats 3-8 to 5-8c. Provisions showed 7 1-2c loss to 5c gain.

Cash close: Wheat No. 1 red 1.10 1-2 to 1.11 1-2; No. 2 red 1.10 to 1.10 1-2; No. 3 red 1.07 3-4 to 1.09 1-2; No. 1 hard 1.10 1-2 to 1.18; No. 2 hard 1.10 to 1.16; No. 3 hard 1.07 3-4 to 1.09 1-2; No. 1 northern 1.27 to 1.28; No. 2 northern 1.1 to 1.26; No. 3 1.15 to 1.22; durum 92 to 1.02.

REVIEW OF COTTON FOR WEEK

Market Characterized by Increased Activity and Violent Fluctuations in Prices—London Operators Attack Market.

New York, July 22.—The past week in the cotton market has been characterized by increased activity in the speculation and by frequent and at times violent fluctuations in prices. For instance in a single day—Tuesday, July 19—prices broke $4 a bale on July; $3 on August, and $1.25 to $2 a bale on the later months. The break on that day was traceable largely to a well organized bear raid. As a prelude to the bear attacks were sent broadcast that the bull pool had sold out its holdings and that the deal in July was over.

London operators and spot interests of prominence attacked the market vigorously. Many stop-loss orders were uncovered in the whole list and for a time support was lacking. Yet the general list has recorded a net advance for the week. Leading bulls denied in vigorous fashion that they had abandoned the deal and they followed this announcement with aggressive bidding and buying, not only of July and August, but also of the Fall months. Moreover, much of the crop news has been unfavorable. Many believe that the situation in important sections of the South is such as to preclude the possibility of a yield of the requisite size. Trade reports in some cases are rather more favorable. In the local dry goods market the demand has improved and at some advance in prices.

Manchester is said to have done a good business with India of late. Continental spinners are said to be carrying very small supplies of raw material. Spinners have been prominent in the buying of futures here, especially continental spinners. The South has also made purchases. On the other hand, the weather of late has undoubtedly been much more favorable over many sections of the South. The sales of the actual cotton have been small on both sides of the water. Some contend that the reports of sales of the spot holdings of leading bulls at 1 to 1 1-2c under ruling official quotations reveal an artificial situation. Large quantities of cotton have been received here for July delivery and more is said to be coming. There has been a noteworthy increase in the local certified stock during the past week. Today, Friday, the market was dull and irregular, old crop months ending at a small decline and new crop months at small advance. July notices for about 25,000 bales was issued. These were promptly stopped by New Orleans bulls.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, July 22.—The cotton goods market was steady for the day with further slight advances reported in printcloth yarn convertibles. Buyers are buying conservatively and requests for prompt shipment of everything due are coming in. Men's wear and Spring dress goods are being opened at lower prices for the season.

DUN'S OUTLOOK FOR TRADE.

Mid-Summer Dullness Less Pronounced—Market Conditions.

New York, July 22.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

Mid-Summer dullness is less pronounced in both wholesale and retail departments of trade and as the leading markets are gradually relieved of some of the difficulties with which they have been beset, crop uncertainties, prices inconsistencies and other disturbing elements—a broader demand develops. There is still much idle cotton machinery in New England, and two weeks shut-down is scheduled for August, but curtailment is forcing a recovery from the low price levels and there is less pressure to liquidate stocks. Footwear factories, East and West, are resuming, and trade is much improved in leather. More definite knowledge regarding the yield of cotton in the South, and wheat in the West, will determine the basis of manufacturing costs in dry goods on the one hand and flour on the other.

With a few exceptions industrial lines are busy and labor well employed in nearly all sections of the country, making for a large purchasing power.

Except for a moderate reduction in prices of wire products, no new feature has developed in iron and steel, the situation generally reflecting the dullness customary at this season. In finished lines, structural material makes the best showing, most mills having sufficient orders on hand to keep them occupied for some time to come, while several unimportant contracts will be opened in the near future.

One Hundred Thousand Dollar Enterprise is Organized There.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, N. C., July 22.—From present indications Washington is soon to have one of the largest and most thoroughly equipped fertilizer factories in the South. The stockholders of the Pamlico Chemical Company met here yesterday and elected the following officers: Mr. J. F. Cowell, president; R. R. Fleming, first vice president; George T. Leach, second vice president; Richard Bragaw, secretary, and A. M. Dumy, treasurer. The stockholders also elected the following directors: J. F. Cowell, R. R. Fleming, George T. Leach, W. S. Chadwick, William Bragaw, Richard Bragaw, S. F. McCotter, W. H. Whitley, and E. M. Proctor. This company will begin business on a capital stock of $100,000, all of which has been fully paid in. The manufacturing plant of the company will be located on the river shore about two miles below the city. The contracts have already been let and it is understood the work of construction will begin at an early date. The main building will be 135x208 feet, while another building for storage purposes will be constructed 40x100 feet, and in addition to these there will be a commodious office building. The Norfolk and Southern Railroad have about completed a spur track running out to the factory, while the company are also building a large pier and dock extending out about 200 feet in Pamlico river, thereby affording transportation facilities both by water and rail. The location of this large factory near this city means much to the business and commercial interests of this city.

CANTELOUPE SHIPMENTS.

Now Moving Through Rocky Mount—A Schedule Change.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., July 22.—The shipments of canteloupes to the northern markets is now well under way by the Atlantic Coast Line. Yesterday there were 25 cars routed north from the Bennettsville and Wilmington branches of the company. With the exception of the melon and canteloupe shipments traffic is light just at present, and freight shipments of other produce are small, the falling off of heavy shipments is no more marked with the Atlantic Coast Line than with other railroads, traffic with all railway lines being now in the midst of Summer.

Effective on Monday afternoon next, July 25th, the afternoon passenger train from this city to Spring Hope and return will be moved back to its schedule time of former days and instead of leaving Rocky Mount at 5:15 as is now the case the former schedule will be put on and this train will leave Rocky Mount at 4 o'clock, and will return to the city at 6 The other schedule worked well for the baseball fans from up that way, but it appears that they have lost their enthusiasm as there was a long petition from Nashville, signed mostly by Nashville citizens, requesting that the train be put back on its former schedule.

GUNBOAT HORNET IN SERVICE.

Goes From New Orleans to Nicaragua—Recently Sold.

Norfolk, Va., July 22.—Bound to New Orleans and thence to Nicaragua the converted gunboat Hornet, formerly owned by the United States government cleared late this afternoon and will sail early tomorrow morning.

It is generally reported that the Hornet will enter the service of the insurgents under Estrada in the troublesome country and will be pitted against the gunboat Venus which is just now creating havoc at the seat of war.

The Hornet was purchased by Isadore Stern and Thomas S. Roberts, of New Orleans, who admit that the craft is to proceed to Nicaragua after a few hours stop at the Louisiana port.

The Hornet was fitted out at the shipyard of Smith and McCoy of this city and it is reported that she has electrical connections for operating rapid fire guns. Messrs. Roberts and Stern deny that the vessel is fitted out with gun appliances here but admit that they suspect she will be used for fighting purposes when she reaches Nicaragua.

Messrs. Roberts and Stern sold the gunboat Venus to the Nicaraguan government but the Hornet is said to be a much better craft and is capable of blowing the Venus out of the water.

FATAL AFFRAY IN NASH.

Negroes Fell Out Over Woman and One is Dead.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Nashville, N. C., July 22.—News reached Nashville today that Jim Row Martin fatally stabbed Javis Burt last night at Momyare, this county. The knife was plunged into the victim's heart. Martin has not been caught. Both were negroes and the quarrel was about a woman.

and that he finally succeeded in getting it hooked just as the gun was passing out of his reach, when the explosion immediately took place. It is presumed that he inadvertently clung to the lanyard, and gave the sudden pull which in the case of the neighboring gun with which it was tried, later proved to be sufficient to defeat the safety object of the mechanism.

This particular model of firing mechanism has been used for several years; in drill and at target practice it has been operated thousands of times and by hundreds of men under the superivision of dozens of officers, but no instances of failure have been reported. It seems likely that continued use and cleaning of the mechanism of gun No. 1 had so worn and rounded some of the parts as to permit its failure, under the violent pull which was probably given it.

"All the mechanisms were tested for safety shortly before the firing commenced, and all apparently were in proper condition.

"It was probable that in testing, the officers subjected them only to stresses which they considered such as they would be reasonably likely to meet, but which were less than the violent pull which it is supposed caused the accident, and to which, in an effort to reproduce it, the mechanism of the other gun were afterwards subjected.

"Of course it is entirely possible to so change the mechanism as to prevent the particular accident which occurred."

TROOPS CAUSE TROUBLE

Played Serious Joke on the Residents of Gettysburg, Pa.

Gettysburg, Pa., July 22.—The regular troops in the United States Camp of Instruction were today divided into two armies and the problem had to do with each army discovering the other and both commanders deciding simultaneously to attack. The West Virginia and District of Columbia militia spent the morning in extensive work along the lines of reconnaissance and outpost duty and the afternoon in battalion drills.

Three more horses were killed in the fifteenth U. S. Cavalry today when they were found to be suffering from acute cases of forage poisoning which had caused the deatas of three others on Wednesday.

When the residents of Gettysburg awoke this morning they found the ton's main thoroughfare converted into picnic ground, the work of a band of militia men who invaded the town at an early hour on their return from a country dance. Chairs, tables and other articles of furniture had been removed from every porch for several blocks and were placed in the middle of the street with numerous potted plants to add to the general effect.

The affair was accomplished after the provost guard had left the town for the night and the Gettysburg police failed to molest them. Business signs were placed in front of private residence and many hours were spent by the owners of the property in recovering their belongings. The identity of the soldiers is unknown.

THE HURRICANE SEASON.

Getting Ready for West Indian Storms Along Gulf Coast.

New Orleans, July 22.—Now that the West Indian hurricane season of time of the year which the weather bureau designates as the "period of maximum frequency for gulf storms" is approaching, extra precautions are being taken in the matter of arranging for prompt and efficient storm warning service along the gulf coast.

Last year the hurricanes were unusually numerous and resulted in much loss of life and property damage but the weather bureau has compiled statistics showing that where the hurricane bulletins were received the death list was smaller and the property damage less and attention is called to instances where outings on or near the water as well as the departure of light craft were abandoned or postponed as a result of the head which was paid to the storm warnings. In such sections as the coast region of Terrebonne parish in Louisiana, which are almost inaccessible and which could not be reached with warnings, heavy toll of life and property have been recorded.

Under the direction of Chief Willis L. Moore, of the United States weather bureau, the stations along the gulf coast this year will not only use the mails, the telegraph and the telephone, but will enlist the aid of swift tugs and mounted messengers to convey the warnings to remote points.

NEGRO MURDERER LYNCHED.

Slayer of Deputy Sheriff Burned at Stake at Belton, Texas.

Belton, Texas, July 22.—Henry Gentry, a negro, 18 years old, paid the penalty of his crime, murder and presumably intended assault, at the stake tonight. Two others, a brother and a companion, charged with implication, missed a like fate only through the pleadings of Sheriff Burke and several citizens. Early today the negro attempted to force an entrance into the home of Mrs. Lamb, a widow, but was frightened away with a shot from the woman's daughter. Several hours later, while Gentry was being searched for by a posse headed by Constable Mitchell, Gentry fired from ambush and killed the posse leader.

The mob surrounded the fugitive and as it closed in Gentry made a dash for liberty, but was shot and crippled. He was dragged behind an automobile to Belton, where several thousand frenzied men and boys awaited his coming. The rope was tossed to a man on horse back and the negro was dragged about the square. The applying of the torch to the pyre was but the work of a moment and while several hundred shots were fired into his body, the already dying negro was incinerated. A dash was then made for the city prison where were the two others charged with aiding Gentry in the killing of Mitchell. Pleadings and a show of force by the sheriff, however, stopped the mob.

Louisville, Miss., July 22.—Crowds are gathering here and threatening to lynch Swinton Fermenter, a young white farmer under arrest on suspicion in connection with the killing of Miss Jenne Sharpe, daughter of a prominent planter.

is subjected during the Autumn and Spring, are necessary in order to enable one to continue his work the next year with that energy and effectiveness which it ought to have. Mr. Justice Strong, of the Supreme bench, who lived to be 88 or 89, told me that it was a part of his life to take 60 days each year out in the woods away from the people, exercising and living in the open air and to that he attributed his long life. And so the American people have come to the conclusion that women and children especially ought to have a change of air where they can expand their lungs and get exercise in the open. The men can go when they can.

"Under these conditions a place like this, that represents the most picturesque, the most vitilizing Summer resort in the United States, is full of interest. In this region where the mountains come down to the sea and the air from the mountains mingles with the air from the sea, we have all the delightful effects of champagne in a prohibition State and without uncomfortable consequences that follow the actual enjoyment of that liquid. Just what the Winters are here I do not propose to dwell upon except to say that I do not doubt that they have made an enduring and progressive race. Certainly those of us in the West can testify that every time you make an inquiry as to the origin of a successful man the chances are quite even that he has come either from Maine or Vermont and I doubt not that among those whose palatial houses rear themselves among the trees and in the hills hereabouts are many who as boys started without any opportunity for vacation in the Summer and who have come back to enjoy the breezes of the country of their boyhood. The three days we have passed in Bar Harbor will be red letter days in my life."

TEXAS PRIMARIES TODAY.

Factions Express Confidence—Prohibition the Big Issue.

Dallas, Texas, July 22.—On the eve of Texas Democratic primary at the end of the most interesting and bitterly fought campaigns ever conducted in this State, each of the factions and candidates express confidence and an unusually heavy vote is anticipated tomorrow.

Nominees for State offices, from Governor to constable, are to be selected with prohibition the big issue. Five men are seeking the gubernatorial nomination with differing views as to the liquor question. The candidates for governor are Robert Vance Davidson, of Galveston county; Oscar Branch Colquitt, of Kaufman county; Cone Johnson, of Smith county; William Poindexter, of Johnson and J. Martin Jones, of Cherokee. Congressional nominees will also be selected.

The proposition of having the Legislature of the State submit to the voters an amendment making the State "dry" is also on the ticket. In Texas a Democratic nomination is equivalent to election.

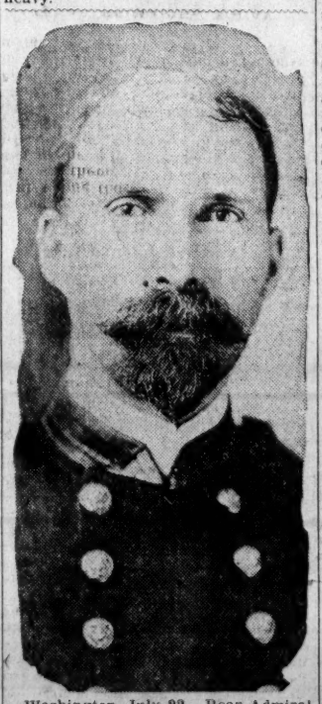
GAS-ELECTRIC CAR.

To Be Used on Greenville-Anderson Branch of Southern.

Columbia, S. C., July 22.—The first gas-electric car for local traffic to be used by the Southern Railway as an experiment on the Greenville-Anderson run, will reach Spartanburg today from Cincinnati, and will be sent on train 41 to Greenville.

Officials are conferring here today on the schedule which will go into effect certainly by July 31st, and perhaps earlier. The schedule will not be agreed on until late this afternoon. Those participating in the conference are Assistant General Passenger Agent Meek, of Atlanta; Assistant General Passenger Agent Pegram, of Charleston; Superintendent Williams, of Columbia division, and General Manager Anderson, of the Blue Ridge road.

If this service proves satisfactory in the Greenville territory, it will be extended to other parts of the Southern system where local traffic is heavy.



Washington, July 22.—Rear Admiral Washington Lee Capps, Uncle Sam's master shipbuilder, is to retire as chief of the bureau of construction and repair of the Navy Department. His resignation, approved by Secretary Meyer, is in the hands of the President, and there is every indication that he is being forced out of the navy. Rear Admiral Capps, at the age of 46, having achieved an enviable reputation as "the man behind the gun," finds himself prompted to retire because, as he himself declares, he is not in entire accord with the reorganization policy of the President and Secretary Meyer. His frankness in so stating his position has led the Secretary to recommend that the resignation be accepted in conformity with the best interests of the naval service.

New York, July 22.—"Women in England are selling their jewels and automobiles to support the woman suffragist movement," said the wife of Philip Snowden, member of parliament and adherent of the promoter of the now famous "George budget" (and, indeed, the compiler of it). Mrs. Snowden has arrived in this country to deliver six Chautauqua lectures, one on suffrage and others on administration of law and woman's position in England. She is one of those fr[illegible] skinned English girls that Kipling spoke of as occupying the vagrant thoughts of Englishmen assigned to years of duty in far territories. Born in Yorkshire, daugater of a well to do builder, she "had the benefit of a substantial middle class education," as they put it there, which doesn't mean college. She first came to notice as the author of articles forming an apologia for the Rev. Dr. Aked, now of New York, when he preached pro-Boer sermons in England.

husband had heard a noise similar to the one which she says aroused them early Wednesday morning.

"The noise on the first floor was something like the shutting of a door," said Mrs. Rawn. "On the second night there was a sort of creeping sound, whether it was the sound of walking I cannot tell you.

"I told my husband not to go down. He did not pay any attention to me, but kept on walking through the dark. It was very dark, you could not really see, but I could hear him walking, and so I got up and sat on the edge of the bed. It did not seem a second when I could hear him creaping down and he had time to get to the first landing when I heard a terrible scuffle. So then I jumped and screamed and at the time I screamed I heard a shot. I was so dazed that I could not move for a second and before I got down there my son (Mr. Coburn) got down in the dark and he turned on the lights."

GRAND TRUNK STRIKE.

Fourth Day With Little Prospect of a Settlement.

Montreal, Que., July 22.—The end of the fourth day of the strike of the Grand Trunk conductors and trainmen sees but little prospect of a settlement in sight. The attempts of MacKenzie King, Minister of Labor, to secure a cessation of hostilities by a resort to arbitration have so far resulted in a reiteration by both parties that they are willing to arbitrate on the lines they suggested on Monday afternoon just before the strike was ordered.

The company succeeded in moving some freight today on most of its divisions and promises to do much better tomorrow. It is said that so far as the Central Vermont is concerned the strike is as good as over. Passenger business is picking up as the public learns that the trains are being operated without molestation. On the other hand the strikers say that many of the new men are deserting the company and that they have persuaded some of the men who did not come out to leave, while men from other departments, who had been taking the places of the strikers have decided to quit. Reports tonight from Brockville say that a mob of a thousand people captured the platform of the railway station and held possession all evening; the police being unable or unwilling to do anything. Belleville was also the scene of trouble. It is understood that application will at once be made for the services of the militia at all points if the local authorities fail to provide full protection.
